ACTIVITY IN WEST ONLY SCATTERING ARTILLERY DUELS

Petrograd Continues to Report Minor Successes in the Carparthians.

LITTLE DOING IN EAST

Various Rumors Current Regarding Action of the Central Powers.

London, April 19.—Activity along the western battle line seems to partake of the nature of isolated engagements rather than a general offensive. Artillery have taken the place of hand-to-hand fighting which has been the feature of recent struggles along the Meuse and near the Lorraine border, but the latter type of combat continues in the Vosges, where the official statements agree sharp fighting is taking place on German territory.

The corroboration, however, ends with this fact, the French claiming to have occupied dominating positions here, and the Germans declaring the attacks of the French have failed.

From the British end of the lines comes the report, officially issued by the war office at London, that Hill No. 60, an important point two miles south of Zillebeke, Belgium, has been captured.

The German communication tells of driving the British out of minor German positions, which they occupied southeast of Ypres. This is in the neighborhood of Hill No. 60.

Petrograd continues to report minor successes in the Carpathians showing that the fighting has not been entirely suspended near the passes but the Russian, Austrian and German official reports agree that spring virtually has put an end to all activity along the remainder of the eastern front.

Various rumors are current regarding the central powers. Austria, through the medium of Venice, is credited with receiving with consternation the news of the extension of the Lansturm service to all classes between the ages of 18 and 50 years, while Rome is sponsor for the statement, attributed to a high German authority, that the German general staff discarded all plans for an advance on the French front, deciding to remain on the defensive.

It again is unofficially announced that operations are under way in the Dardanelles where the Turks are reported building defenses against landing parties, but the news of the breaking up of the ice at Archangel, the only large seaport on the north coast of Russia, may induce the Entente Allies to be more deliberate in their attempts to unlock the gate to the Black sea.

The irritation in Holland over the torpedoing of the Dutch ship Katwyk has been greatly allayed by Germany's expression of her willingness to make an apology and pay an indemnity if it is found that the vessel was sunk by a German submarine.

ALLIES CAPTURE HILL 60.

British Official Report of Attacks and Fights With Germans.

London, April 19.—The following official statement was issued tonight at the war office:

"A successful action commencing on the evening of the 17th culminated last night in the capture and complete occupation of an important point known as Hill 60, which lies about two miles south of Zillebeck to the east of Ypres. This hill dominates the country to the north and norrthwest.

"The subsequential explosion of a mine under the hill, commenced the operations and many Germans were killed by this and 15 prisoners were captured, including an officer.

"At day break on the 18th the enemy delivered a heavy counter attack against this hill, but were repulsed with a heavy loss. They advanced in close formation and our machine gun battery got well into them.

"Desperate efforts were made all day yesterday by the Germans to cover the hill, but they were everywhere repulsed with great loss. In front of the captured position, upon which we are now consolidated in strength, hundreds of dead are lying.

"Yesterday two more German aeroplanes were brought down in this area. Since the 15th instant the total loss to the enemy is five aeroplanes."

AUSTRIAN OFFICIAL STATEMENT.

Reviews Developments of Day in Conflict With Russians.

Vienna, via London, April 19.—The Austrian war department today gave out the following official statement:

"In Russian Poland and in West Galicia there were no particular events.

"In the Carpathians, with the exception of unimportant fighting in the wooded mountains in which we captured 127 Russians, the situation was quiet.

RUSSIAN OFFICIAL STATEMENT.

Developments of Past Two Days Recorded—Mostly Successes.

Petrograd, via London, April 19.—The Russian army headquarters tonight gave out the following official statement:

"On Sunday night the enemy suffered great losses in an attack on our troops on the heights of Telepotch (in the Carpathian mountains).

"By a counter attack we forced the enemy to evacuate the approaches to

Consists of Seven Republicans, Three Progress[illegible] and Two Democrats—Twenty-Two Talesmen Were [illegible]mined—Motion by Former President's Counse[illegible]dismiss Complaint is Denied—Testimon[illegible]day

Syracuse, N. Y., April 19.—The jury which will try William Barnes' $50,000 suit for alleged libel against Theodore Roosevelt was completed in supreme court here today. It comprises seven Republicans, three Progressives and two Democrats. Twenty-two talesmen were examined before both sides announced they were satisfied with the 12 men in the box. The jurymen are:

Henry Hoag, clerk, Republican (foreman); Irving J. Mills, wood worker, Republican; Walter J. Zulli, manager, Republican; Franklin S. Rhoades, farmer, Progressive; Leonard K. Hungerford, painter, Progressive; F. Pierce, carpenter, Republican; Warren H. Somers, grocer, Republican; Ray Tanner, farm hand, Democrat; John W. Brown, farmer, Republican; George Boeschert, manufacturer, Progressive; Edward Burns, motorman, Republican; Peter Bencke, coal dealer, Democrat.

Immediately after the jury had been completed, counsel for Colonel Roosevelt made a motion to dismiss the complaint against their client on the ground that allegations made in the statement on which the suit is based were privileged and that in naming Mr. Barnes and Charles F. Murphy as the controllers of "rotten government" in the state of New York he did not mean anything personal or to imply that either of the two men named had in any way profited by the alleged "rottenness."

The motion was denied by Justice William S. Andrews.

Actual taking of testimony will begin tomorrow. The first witnesses will be newspaper men to which Colonel Roosevelt issued the statement. Other reporters who have interviewed Col. Roosevelt in the last five years will be called and photographs of nearly 100 newspapers in which alleged libellous statements, claimed to have been made by Col. Roosevelt appeared will be presented in evidence, it was said. This testimony will be offered in an effort to prove publication of statements issued verbally and in writing by Col. Roosevelt.

Counsel for Mr. Barnes said tonight that they would make an effort to show that Col. Roosevelt began to make statements which they consider libelous during the Syracuse convention of 1910. The Barnes attorneys said further that some of the reporters would be called on to testify regarding verbal statements Col. Roosevelt made to them in amplification of written statements he had prepared.

After Mr. Barnes' attorneys have presented this evidence, the defense will begin its case. As only two of the many witnesses summoned for the defense were in Syracuse tonight, it was presumed that Col. Roosevelt's first witness would not be called before Wednesday.

Although there was room in the court for less than 50 spectators, a great crowd stood in the corridors and outside the building all day. Fifty policemen preserved order.

If Colonel Roosevelt saw his opponent at any time during the proceedings today he showed no sign of it. He seemed to be the more serious of the two. He was intensely interested in the selection of the jurors and the questions asked talesmen. While his attorney was arguing upon the motion to dismiss the complaint he leaned far forward in his chair so as not to miss a single word.

Mr. Barnes also ignored his opponent when he first entered the court room. Later, however, he swung around in his chair and watched the Colonel for several minutes. Mr. Barnes listened intently to the questions asked the first two jurors and then occupied himself by making notes on a pad of paper. While Mr. Roosevelt's attorney was talking Mr. Barnes smiled broadly on more than one occasion.

Attorneys on both sides were in conference tonight. Later the Roosevelt attorneys gave out the following typewritten statement:

Motion Only Perfunctory.

"The motion of Mr. Bowers was merely intended to be the usual one in the conduct of such a case, and in no way implied any change in the position of the defendant. The defense will proceed along its original lines. There was not and is not now any intention to deviate therefrom. Mr. Bowers simply discussed the legal situation which attaches to the article as published in the absence of an innuendo which under well recognized rules of law required if possible a harmless construction of the language if such construction is considered by the court to be possible. Motion having been denied the defense will now proceed to prove the allegations set up in the answer of Colonel Roosevelt. The question is purely a legal one and in no way involved a change of front as to the facts."

Colonel Serenaded by Students.

Late tonight 400 students at Syracuse University serenaded Colonel Roosevelt. He talked to them about athletics and then told them why he did not feel at liberty to discuss his case, he wished the jury had been picked from their number.

Washington, April 19.—Secretary Daniels today designated Miss Esther Ross, of Presscott, Ariz., as sponsor for the new dreadnought Arizona to be launched June 19 at the New York navy yard.

Morton & Cox bid $5,600; Robert Trucke, Wilmington, $7,900; E. Dummerant Construction Co., Portsmouth, Va., $10,245.

WAR OF TURKISH PEOPLE NOT OF THE GOVERNMENT

So Declares Enver Pasha, War Minister and Generalissimo of the Ottoman Army, in First Interview Given American Press—Gives His Country's Reasons for Entering the War—Present Status.

Constantinople, April 18, via London, April 20.—"I am glad you ask that question. This is not a war of the Turkish government, but a war of the Turkish people," said Enver Pasha, the most remarkable man in Turkey, who at the age of 33 years is war minister and generalissimo of the Ottoman army, to the Associated Press correspondent, in the first interview ever given to the American press. "Unddubtedly the world finds difficulty in understanding that the Turkey of today is no longer the Turkey of the past, but that, nevertheless, is a fact which should be apparent to all impartial observers," he continued.

The world's youngest commander-in-chief typefies the Young Turks' intellectual attainments and ideals. The conversation with him was carried on in German and besides having a thorough command of the German language, he speaks excellent French.

When the correspondent entered, Enver Pasha shook hands cordially and said:

"I am sorry to have kept you waiting, but I am very busy all day. You have come to interview me. Well, I will make an exception in your favor. What do you want?"

"The exact reasons for Turkey participating in the war," was the reply.

"There Was No Way Out."

"You refer, no doubt," said Enver Pasha, "to the assertions in the newspapers of Great Britain, France and Russia that Turkey entered the war to help Germany. That is very true at this moment; not when we mobilized. Today Austria-Hungary and Germany help us; we help them. But we mobilized because there was no way out.

"Long before we took this step Russia had grown ugly on the Black Sea and in the Caucasus, entering our territory there, while England had already operated against us and had concentrated before the Dardanelles. We were unwilling to start the ball rolling and after the Russians attacked our fleet in the Black Sea we still waited one week before war was declared.

"We knew that Turkey would be led to the slaughter block. Being unwilling that this should happen, we took the only course open. We Turks feel that we have a right to exist especially when the best of us are straining every effort and are catching up with other countries in intellectual and material development.

"There was a time when Turkey was merely a government clique which was not trusted by the people, but gradually the people are beginning to feel that they themselves are Turkey. I think that this is the healthiest sign here today, and there also is the promise that the progress of all civil life will be rapid.

Taking Care of Our Troops.

"We are taking care of our troops today, hence their loyalty. Formerly a man was given a rifle and had to shift for himself as best he could; today we see that his land is cultivated in his absence.

"This measure has been so effective that the area of cultivated land is 20 per cent greater than ordinarily.

"When a man is in the field we see that he is cared for, simply, perhaps, but sufficiently. The Turkish soldier, moreover, now knows how to shoot well; this is instilling the confidence he formerly lacked."

To the question as to who was responsible for the better quality of troops which has been so apparent, Enver Pasha replied:

"When I reached the head of the army I discharged on my second day in office about 3,000 old soldiers who

Bearing Secret Reports to Their Home Government.

FROM THEIR CAPTAIN

Who Pledged That None of Officers or Men Would Leave Norfolk.

London, April 20. — "Several members of the crew of the German auxiliary cruiser Prinz Eitel Friedrich have arrived here on board the steamer Hellig Olav, from New York, headed by the second officer," says the Daily Mail's Copenhagen correspondent. "They were provided with false passports, describing them as Swedish subjects. They are bearing secret reports to Germany from the Prinz Eitel's commander."

The Prinz Eitel Friedrich is now interned at the Norfolk navy yard, where she was taken from Newport News April 9. Under the internment order, the captain of the cruiser gave his pledge that neither he, his officers nor men would leave the vicinity of Norfolk.

STOUTLY DENIED AT NORFOLK

Both American and German Officers Say Report is "All Bosh."

Norfolk, Va., April 20.—Rear Admiral Beatty, commanding the Norfolk navy yard, early this morning declared the report that officers from the Eitel Friedrich had reached Copenhagen was "all bosh."

"No officer nor any of the crew has left the ship here," he declared.

Second Officer Victor Hartzen, of the Eitel Friedrich, this morning declared that no officer had left the ship since she arrived in Hampton Roads on March 10.

"Second Officer William Krontnenn was put ashure at Buenos Ayres last September," declared Hartzen. "He said he had relatives in Copenhagen and wanted to go home."

"He was second officer on the Eitel Friedrich before war began. He was not a soldier and wanted to see his relatives. We landed him and heard nothing more from him.

"He did not carry any reports because he had done nothing to that time worth reporting. No member of the crew has left the ship since that time."

Leavenworth, Kan., April 19.—Twenty-one city officials and ofrmer officials of Terre Haute, Ind., convicted in the election conspiracy cases, spent tonight in the Federal penitentiary here as prisoners serving time for their crimes. Tomorrow they will go into the various departments of the big institution to their new tasks.

REPORT OF DEFEAT OF VILLA IS CONFIRMED

Consular Dispatches Tell of Retreat Northward.

Villa's Losses In Six Days Battle With Carranza Forces Under Obregon 6,000 Killed and Wounded. Destroying Railroad.

Washington, April 19.—Consular dispatches from Mexico to the State Department today confirmed Carranza claims of a great victory for General Obregon over General Villa at Celaya and told of Villa's retreat northward, destroying the railroad as he went. Villa's losses in the six days' fighting ending Saturday were estimated at 6,000 killed and wounded.

Fourteen troop trains carrying the defeated chieftain and his battered army arrived yesterday at Aguas Calientes, 125 miles north of the battle ground around Celaya and Irapuato.

With these reports the department gave out a summary of advices from the west coast transmitted by Rear Admiral Howard, saying "the Villa movement on the west coast apparently is collapsing and indications point to the control of the entire west coast by Carranza in a few weeks."

From the border, too, came confirmation of the reported withdrawal southward of Villa forces besieging Matamoras.

SUPREME COURT'S DECISION SEALS LEO M. FRANK'S FATE IS BELIEF NOW EXPRESSED

Highest Tribunal Holds That State of Georgia Denied Him No Right Under Federal Constitution—Affirms Action of Federal District Court—Justices Holmes and Hughes Dissent—Executive Clemency?

Washington, April 19.—The Supreme Court today held that the State of Georgia had denied Leo M. Frank no right under the Federal Constitution in sentencing him to death for the murder of Mary Phagan. The court affirmed the action of the Federal district court for Northern Georgia, refusing to release Frank on a writ of habeas corpus, Justice Pitney announcing the opinion.

Justice Holmes delivered a dissenting opinion, in which Justice Hughes concurred.

This decision, it is believed here, exhausts all means of fighting in the courts to save Frank's life. His attorneys, however, will have 30 days in which to file an application for a rehearing. At the end of that time apparently only the possibility of executive clemency will be between the prisoner and death.

The habeas corpus proceedings rested on the claim that the trial court had lost jurisdiction by reason of "mob domination" during the trial and by Frank's involuntary absence at the time the verdict was rendered. It was claimed this denied him "due process" as guaranteed by the Federal Constitution.

The majority of the court held that the findings by the Supreme Court of Georgia that the alleged "mob dominance" amounted to nothing more than irregularities, not prejudicial to Frank, should not be disturbed than as found. This was so, the court held, especially as the prisoner withheld from the court affidavits he had presented to the state courts on the subjects of disorder during the trial.

Justice Holmes Dissents.

Justice Holmes, dissenting, declared that loss of jurisdiction by the trial court could not be restored by any decision by a higher court and declined to accept the findings of the Georgia Supreme Court as conclusive. He said if the allegations in Frank's petition for habeas corpus were true and the facts were before the Georgia Supreme Court, that court sanctioned a situation upon which the Federal courts should act.

If the facts were not before the State supreme court, he added, it was the duty of the Federal court to declare lynch law as little valid "when practiced by a regularly drawn jury as when administered by one elected by a mob intent on death."

The dissenting justices held the case should be sent back to the district court for the taking of evidence on the petition. They said that they were not impressed with the argument that the presence of a prisoner at the time a verdict was rendered was required by the Constitution.

Justice Pitney's formal opinion of more than 10,000 words, concluded with the following summary:

Summary of the Opinion.

"His allegations of hostile public sentiment and disorder in and about the court room, improperly influencing the trial court and the jury against him, have been rejected because found untrue in point of fact upon evidence presumably justifying that finding, and which he has not produced in the present proceeding; his contention that his lawful rights were infringed because he was not permitted to be present when the jury rendered its verdict, has ben set aside because it was waived by his failure to raise the objection in due season when fully cognizant of the fact.

"In all these proceedings, the State, through its courts, has retained jurisdiction over him, and accorded to him the fullest right and opportunity to be heard according to the established modes of procedure and now holds him in custody to pay the penalty of the crime of which he has been adjudged guilty.

"In our opinion, he is not shown to have been deprived of any right guaranteed to him by the fourteenth amendment or any other provision of the constitution or laws of the United States; on the contrary he has been convicted and is now held in custody, under 'due process of law' within the meaning of the constitution.

"The judgment of the district court, refusing the application for a writ of habeas corpus is affirmed."

The court's decision held that the obligation rested on the Supreme court to look through the form and 'into the very heart and substance of the matter, not only in the averment in Frank's petition, but in the trial proceedings in the State courts themselves.

As to the Disorder.

"The petition contains a narrative of disorder, hostile manifestations and uproar," said Justice Pitney, "which if it stood alone and were to be taken as true, may be conceded to have been inconsistent with a fair trial and an impartial verdict. But to consider this as standing alone is t otake a wholly superficial view; for the narrative is coupled with other statements from which it clearly appears that the same allegations of disorder were submitted first to the trial court, and afterwards to the Supreme Court of Georgia, as a ground for avoiding the consequences of the trial and these allegations were considered by those courts successively at times and places and under circumstances wholly apart from the atmosphere of the trial, and free from any suggestion of mob domination or the like the facts were examined by those courts upon evidence submitted on both sides, and both courts found Frank's allegations to be groundless, except with respect to a few matters of irregularity not harmful to the defendant.

"This court holds that such a determination of the facts cannot in the collateral inquiry be treated as a nullity, but must be taken as setting forth the truth of the mater until some reasonable ground is shown for an inference that the Supreme Court of Georgia either was wanting in jurisdiction or committed error in the exercise of its jurisdiction; and the mere assertion by the prisoner that the facts of the matter are other than the state courts, upon full investigation determined them to be will not be treated as raising an issue respecting the correct-

WORLD-FAMED AVIATOR CAPTURED BY GERMANS

Lieut. Garros Well Known in The United States

One of the Most Daring and Intrepid of French Military Airmen, Now in Hands of Germans—Berlin Statement.

Berlin, April 19, (By Wireless)—The Roland G. Garros, the famous aviaator, Roland G. Garros, the famous aviator has been captured by the Germans at Inglemunster, Belgium, seven miles north of Coutral.

The report follows:

"South of Ypres the British yesterday were ejected from the minor German positions still occupied by them in that locality. British attacks along the railroad between Ypres and Commines broke down with very heavy losses to them.

"Near Gelmunster Lieut. Garros, a French aviator, has been made prisoner.

"Between the Meuse and the Moselle there have been artillery duels.

"French attacks at Corbres and in the Vosges failed.

"On the Eastern frant the situation remains unchanged.

"French and British reports concerning victories on the western front are all inventions as it is sufficiently proved by the regular reports from German headquarters."

Lieut. Garros is well known in the United States, having flown in many competitions in this country.

He had proven himself one of the most intrepid and daring of the French military men. At Dunkirk three days ago he shot dead in the air the aviator and observer of a German aeroplane.

Garros appeared in meets in Richmond, Chattanooga, Memphis, New Orleans, Dallas, Fort Worth, Oklahoma City, Waco, Houston, San Antonio, El Paso, Mexico City, Vera Cruz, Havana and New York, and holds a number of speed prizes won at European tournaments.

MAY CUT CIVIL WAR SCENES FROM MOVIES

Massachusetts Governor Debating His Authority

Methodist Conference Asks That Films Be Prohibited—Hundreds of Negroes Call on Governor to Protest.

Boston, Mass., April 19.—Governor Walsh today discussed with Attorney General Attwill, Chief Neal, of the state police, Stephen O'Meara, Boston police commissioner, and Superintendent Crowley, of the Boston police, the question whether he had authority to prohibit further exhibition here of picture films purporting to portral scenes of the Civil war. Resolutions protesting against the pictures were adopted by the New England Methodist Conference now in session here, but Mayor Curley decided he could not interfere, as it was not established that the pictures were obscene.

While the governor was closeted with the other officials, several hundred negroes, waiting to be heard in protest against the exhibition, occupied the steps of the statehouse. Among them were a number who were arrested after a demonstration at a local theatre Saturday night.

The governor, after the conference, notified a delegation representing the protestants that he would ask the legislature to pass a law prohibiting plays or picture exhibitions that raised the race question.

Police Commissioner O'Meara said he thought a statute enacted in 1910 governing public exhibitions would authorize him to stop the one in question.

Washington, April 19.—President Wilson will leave here early tomorrow for New York to attend the annual luncheon of the Associated Press. Secretary Daniels decided tonight to go with the President and others in the party will be Dr. C. T. Grayson and Secretary Tumulty.

SELF POSSESSION CALMNESS JUDICIAL TEMPERAMENT NEED

Urged By President in Address to Daughters of the Revolution.

SANE SECOND THOUGHT

Ambassador Jusserand Pays High Tribute to Behavior of America.

Washington, April 19.—The need of self possession, calmness and a judicial temperament by the United States in the present world crisis was urged today by President Wilson in a speech before the opening session of the 24th Continental Congress of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

The President said self-possession was the supreme test of a nation's mettle and urged the Congress to rally to the cause of righteousness, as ministered by those who hold their minds quiet, and judge upon principle.

Following the President's speech, Ambassador Jusserand, of France, told the Congress that the United States had behaved in the European crisis so as to command the gratitude and thankfulness of the world.

"We in France," he said, "have learned to know what the American heart is made of—the pure American gold that is in it. I am glad that I may affirm the thanks of France for the generosity of America—the neutral United States."

The ambassador said the "chief question in the European struggle," was the samè problem that confronted America in revolutionary times.

"We thought we had solved the problem of human liverty," he added, "but it again confronts us. It will be solved now just as it was solved in former times, as it was solved in the trenches at Yorktown."

The President in his speech declared that he could speak only in general terms and that it was "indiscreet" for him to speak even in that way.

Mrs. John Hays Hammond, R. C. B. Thurston, president-general of the Sons of the Revolution, and John Barrett, director-general of the Pan-American Union, also spoke today.

The routine organization of the congress was completed today and the rival followers of the two candidates for president-general were preparing for the election Wednesday. Mrs. William Cumming Story, candidate for reelection, will be opposed by Mrs. Geo. Thacher Guernsey, of Kansas.

The President's Address.

The President's address follows:

"In these times when unusual things are happening and there are many queries as to the future, I suppose that those associations whose business it is to commemorate the past must be asking themselves what part they have in the future. Our business of course, is not merely one of recollection or remembering and reverencing the traditions of the country that we love. There is no dignity in a tradition which has lost its practical energy, and our interest in traditions is that they should bear fruitage in the present and a still richer fruitage in the future.

"Your society is particularly intended to commemorate the circumstances of the birth of this nation, but I take it for granted that it is not your thought to create an exclusive company of those whose recollections by heredity run back to that great day, but that your thought is also of the contant rebirth of the nation. In a peculiar degree the United States seems to be reborn from generation to generation because renewed out of all the sources of human energy in the world. There is here a great melting pot in which we must compound a precious metal. That metal is the metal of nationality and if you will not think I am merely playing upon words, I would like to spell the word 'metal,' in two ways. For it is just the mettle of this nation that we are now most interested in.

"There are many tests by which a nation makes proof of its greatness but it seems to me the supreme test is self-possession, the power to resist excitement, to think calmly, to think in moments of difficulty as clearly as it would think in moments of ease—to be absolutely master of itself and of its fortunes.

The "Sober Second Thought."

"Therefore it seems to me that the object of traditions such as this society cherishes and means to assist in perpetuating is to show us the basis of principle upon which we shall keep our poise. eW are interested in the United States, politically speaking, in nothing but human liberty. We are not interested in politics or government for their own sake.

"I venture to say that if there should ever be discovered a better form of government than the democratic, we should wish to adopt it because it was better, for our object is not to stick in the dark, our object is not merely to preserve forms, but to preserve a precious essence, and that is the essence of equal opportunity and essential human rights. Such ideals cannot be maintained with steadiness in view of and amidst contest and excitement, and what I am constantly hoping is that every great influence such as you ladies exercise, for example, will be exercised to produce the sober second thought upon every critical matter that arises. The first thought is apt to proceed with impulse, is apt to proceed from prejudice, from predilection, from some transient sympathy, but we cannot afford to sympathize with anybody or anything except the passing generations of human beings. America forgets what she was born for when she does exactly the way every other na-

Governor Craig to Pitch First Ball for Leaguers.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., April 19.—The Raleigh Rotarians have something exceptionally strenuous and fetching up their sleeves in the way of a demonstration to swell the attendance for the opening day of the league baseball season in Raleigh. Just what it is does not yet appear, but that developments that will prove a winner in the contest for the Lyon cup for the biggest opening day crowd in the Carolina League will result is confidently expected here.

Governor Craig is to pitch the first ball and Mayor James I. Johnson will do the catching stunt behind the bat for this opening ceremony. There are sure to be great numbers of fans here from Durham to watch the progress of the opening contest between the Raleigh and the Durham teams.

Manager Mack is very confident that his team will show up finely in the opening game. The practice work has been strenuous and directed in such a way as to bring out the capacity of the players in fine form. Manager Mack will again hold down first base.

POST SERIES GAMES.

Braves Defeated Giants—Rebels Won from the Orioles.

The Braves defeated the Giants by a score of 40 to 23 in the A League and the Rebels won from the Orioles to the tune of 22 to 15 in the B League in the first of the post season series to decide the championship, played at the Boys' Brigade last evening.

Both games were fast and snappy and were witnessed by a very large gathering of enthusiastic fans. Capt. Harry Register, for the Braves, starred for his team, scoring 18 points. For the Giants, Capt. C. Davis was the heavy scorer, getting a total of 11 points.

The second games of the series will be played Friday night at 8:30 o'clock. Should the teams winning last night win again Friday night, the championship will be decided. In the event third games are necessary, they will be played next Monday night.

German Sea Raider Moved Yesterday —Wants Some Coal Now.

Newport News, Va., April 19.—The German sea raider Kronprinz Wilhelm was placed in dry dock here today. The naval board's survey on which will be based the time to be extended for making the cruiser seaworthy will be made immediately.

Captain Thierfelder today requested an additional supply of coal and provisions for port purposes. This probably will be granted.

SUPREME COURT'S DECISION SEALS FRANK'S FATE

ness of that determination; especially not where the very evidence upon which the determination was rested is withheld by him who attacks the finding.

Absence From Court.

"Respecting the fact that Frank was not present in the court room when the verdict was rendered (his presence having been waived by his counsel but without his knowledge or consent), the Georgia court held that because Frank, shortly after the verdict, was made fully aware of the facts and he then made a motion for a new trial upon over 100 grounds not including this as one, and had that motion heard by bot hthe trial court and the Supreme Court could not after this motion, had been finally adjudicated against him, move to set aside the verdict as a nullity because of his absence when the verdict was rendered. This court holds that there is nothing in the fourteenth amendment to prevent a state from adopting and enforcing so reasonable a regulation of procedure.

"This court holds that the practice established in the criminal courts of Georgia that a defendant may waive his right to be present when the jury renders its verdict, and that such waiver may be given after as well as before the trial, and is to be inferred from the making of a motion for new triad upon other grounds when the facts respecting the rendition of verdict are within the prisoner's knowledge ,is a regulation of criminal procedure that it is within the authority of the State to adopt. Since the State may, without infringing the 14th amendment, abolish trial by jury, it may limit the effect to be given to an error respecting one of such incidents of the trial. The presence of the prisoner at the rendition of their verdict is not so essential a part of the hearing that a rule of practice permitting the accused to waive it, and holding him bound by the waiver, amounts to a deprivation of due process of law.

"The contention that the decision of the Supreme Court of Georgia that Frank had waived the point respecting his absence when the verdict was rendered amounted in effect to an ex post facto law because inconsistent with previous decisions of the same court is overruled by this court, because, assuming the inconsistency, the prohibition contained in the Constitution of the United States, 'no state shall pass any bill of attainder Ex Post Facto law or law impairing the obligation of contracts' as its terms indicate, directed against legislative action only and does not reach erroneous or inconsistent decisions by the courts."

Justice Holmes based his dissent largely on the ground that the finding of a State Supreme Court about the existence of "mob violence" at a trial is not binding on the United States Supreme Court. He said he saw no reason for adopting a sterner rule in criminal appeals than in civil appeals, and where questions of law and fact are interminglied in civil cases, as here, the Supreme Court may review a State court's finding of fact.

"The single question in our mind," said Justice Holmes, "is whether a petition alleging that the trial took place in the midst of a mob savagely and manifestly intent on a single result is shown on its face unwarranted by the specifications which may be presumed to set forth the strongest indications of the fact that the petitioners' command.

"This is not a matter for polite presumptions; we must look facts in the face. Any judge who has sat with juries knows that in spite of forms they are extremely likely to be impregnated by the environing atmosphere. And when we find the judgment of the expert on the spot, of the judge whose business it was to preserve not only form but substance, to have been that if one juryman yielded to one reasonable doubt that he himself later expressed in court as the result of most anxious deliberation, neither prisoner nor counsel would be safe from the rage of the crowd, we think the presumption overwhelming that the jury responded to the passions of the mob.

"Of course, we are speaking only of the case made by the petition, and whether it ought to be heard. Upon allegations of this gravity in our opinion it ought to be heard whatever the decision of the state court may have been.

"There is no reason to fear an impairment of the authority of the state to punish the jury. We do not think it impracticable in any part of this country to have trials free from outside control. But to maintain this immunity it may be necessary that the supremacy of the law and of the Federal constitution should be vindicated in a case like this."

EVERY MEANS EXHAUSTED

Frank's Attorneys May Ask for Commutation.

Atlanta, Ga., April 19.—Leo M. Frank's attorneys, when informed of the decision today of the United States Supreme court, said that they believed that every means in Frank's behalf before the courts now had been exhausted.

They added that they probably would prepare a petition for presentation before the Georgia prison commission, asking for commutation of Frank's sentence.

"I am very much disappointed over the Supreme Court's decision, but I will keep up the fight," was the only statement Leo M. Frank would make.

When the mandate of the Supreme Court is received by the Federal district court here, Solicitor General Dorsey probably will requests that Frank be arraigned before the Fulton county Superior court for re-sentence.

Frank's Fight for Life.

Leo M. Frank's legal fight for life has taken a place among the celebrated murder cases of recent years. Seven times since his conviction in August, 1913, the lower and supreme courts of the state of Georgia refused to grant Frank a new trial or to set aside the verdict; three times the sentence of death was passed upon him and twice appeals were made to the United States Supreme Court, the first being unsuccessful and the second resulting in the decision today.

The murder of 14-year-old Mary Phagan, a factory employe, of Atlanta, Ga., which at first appeared to be a crime of only local importance, eventually developed into a case of nation-wide interest. This was due in large part to the efforts of Frank and his friends to obtain for him a new trial or annulment of the verdict. Added interest in Atlanta was given the case because of its having been brought into a municipal political controversy, which involved attacks on that city's police and detective departments and wrangles among factions in the city administration.

Soon after the trial ended, the case came in for agitation which spread all over the country.

Mary Phagan was murdered April 26, 1913, on a Southern holiday in observance of Confederate Memorial Day. Shortly after noon of that day she was seen to enter the pencil factory, in Atlanta, where she had been employed and where she went to obtain wages due her. Her body was found next morning in the basement of the factory, with a cord tied about the neck.

Leo M. Frank, a young Jew, a college graduate and married, whose home had been in Brooklyn, N. Y., was superintendent of the pencil factory. Three days after the murder, Frank was arrested on suspicion and on May 8, Frank and a negro watchman at the factory, Newt Lee, were held by the coroner for the grand jury's action. Lee subsequently was released. Sixteen days later "Jim" Conley, a negro sweeper at the factory, made a confession to the police in which he accused Frank of having killed the Phagan girl, and declared he had helped

SUPREME COURT TAKES A DAY OFF TOMORROW

To Attend Inauguration of Dr. Graham at Chapel Hill

Notable Cases From Fourteenth District to Be Heard Thursday—Dr. G. M. Cooper Heads Bureau of Rural Sanitation.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., April 19.—The Supreme Court will not call the appeals from the Fourteenth judicial district for argument until Thursday on account of the purpose of the members of the court to attend the ceremonies Wednesday for the inauguration of Dr. Graham as president of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

An especially notable appeal to be heard Thursday is that of Charles E. Trull, of Charlotte, from a death sentence imposed under conviction of the murder and robbery of Sidney Swain, a grocer, on Mint street, Charlotte, who was killed and robbed May 16, 1914. The conviction is wholly circumstantial, the evidence being principally that shoes worn by Trull fitted tracks left by the murderer, that the shoes had blood stains, that pants that Trull had worn at that time were blood stained and that he was seen in the vicinity of the scene of the murder before and after the crime was committed. Furthermore, he had $407 in cash in his pocket when arrested and was planning to leave Charlotte and the State. D. B. Paul and Newell & Newell are counsel for the prisoner, who was originally sentenced to be electrocuted on August 14, 1914.

The Supreme Court has granted a petition of D. F. King, the defendant, for a rehearing in the noted damage suit of A. D. Ivey from Rockingham county, in which Former State Senator Ivey was given a judgment for $1,500 against King and this judgment was affirmed by the Supreme Court in the former hearing. The suit was based on a publication in The Weekly Courier, written by King and making charges against Mr. Ivey, A. L. Brooks and C. C. McMichael and growing out of the case of Leaksville-Spray Institute vs. B. F. Mebane. Under the rules of the court the rehearing will be by brief only and these will be filed within 20 days.

Dr. G. M. Cooper Honored.

Dr. G. M. Cooper is appointed by the State Board of eHalth as chief of the Bureau of Rural Sanitation and assistant secretary of the State Board of Health. He has for some time been whole-time health ogicer for Sampson county, a position in which he has scored special success. He is president of the State Health Officers' Association.

A charter was issued today for the Palmer Forced Draft Burner Company, of Charlotte, capital $125,000 authorized and $15,000 subscribed by W. C. Alexander, H. C. Rice and H. O. Dorsey. Another charter is for the A. Kluttz Company, of Chapel Hill, capital $50,000 authorized and $10,000 subscribed by S. S. Solomon and others.

D'REUTER FOUND DEAD REVOLVER LYING NEAR

Head of Reuter's Telegram Co. Believed to be a Suicide

London, April 19.—Baron Herbert De-Reuter, managing owner of Reuter's Telegram Company, was found dead yesterday at his home near Reigate Surrey. A discharged revolver lay near his body and the authorities declare there is little doubt he committed suicide.

Baron DeReuter was prostrated by the death of his wife last Thursday. Her body still is in the home awaiting interment. The only son is in the army.

Baron Auguste Julius Clemens Herbert deReuter was born March 10, 1852. He was educated at Harrow, Oxford and Paris. His wife, whom he married in 1876, was a daughter of the late Robert Campbell, of Buscot Park, Berkshire. Beside the son and heir, who is in the British army, they are survived by a daughter, who is the wife of J. W. E. J. Douglas.

Baron deReuter succeeded to the title on the death in 1899 of his late father, who was created a baron of the Duchy of Saxe-Coburg-Gotha in 1871. Royal license for permission to use the title in England was granted in 1891, by Queen Victoria.

The first baron was the founder of Reuter's Telegram Company, now one of the leading news gathering organizations in the world. In 1841 when the first cable was laid between England and France the headquarters of the company was transferred to London.

GAS PLANT WANTED AT KINSTON

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Kinston, N. C., April 19.—The Chamber of Commerce has asked the Kinston city council to open negotiations with Northern capitalists for a gas plant, to be established here as soon as possible. It is the sense of the commercial organization that Kinston must before long have a gas works, and that the pipes should be laid before additional paving to be laid this summer is put down. The public Utilities of Philadelphia were some months ago interested in Kinston as a profitable field, and stated that they would, as soon as business conditions were more settled, take up with the authorities the matter of a franchise. The Public Utilities were the successors to the Southern Gas Improvement Company, who let a franchise expire in 1914 by not commencing construction within the stipulated time. City Council will probably invite all interested to discuss with it any propositions that may be advanced. It is estimated that a plant of the proper capacity here will cost around $100,000.

THEATRICAL

Have you seen Elsie Janis on the stage? Then you will hurry to see her in moving pictures, for there—in comedy comic—she out-Elsies Elsie. Have you never seen Elsie Janis on the stage? Then by all means let her lure you to the Victoria Theatre, where "The Caprices of Kitty," released by Bosworth on the Paramount Programme will be shown today only. It will introduce you to the cleverest comedienne our proud old country boasts of. And in a comedy romantic that Elsie wrote and stars in. She knew what she could do to please the public, she has been pleasing them ever since she made her noteworthy debut in the Vanderbilt Cup, so she gathered all her genius into play and gave us "The Caprices of Kitty." It is better than the first night of a successful Broadway production because it embodies all the attractions of the stage in one smashing idea; there is the romantic, dramatic and comedy vein running through it. Besides her imitations—and there is no one to compare with Elsie Janis when she vaudevilles. She laughs with you, so she is happily willing that you should laugh at her, and her own capricious caprices. To caprice she certainly does from driving a racer at 60 miles past speed limit, to disguising herself in weird and wonderful costumes and visiting her fiance artist in his studio. This is after her guardian has forbidden her to see him for six months, a clause in her father's will reading: "Fortune lost if Kit's fiance sees her for six months prior to wedding." Then comes a surprising climax. This we will not tell, but let Elsie Janis unravel it herself to your amusement and amazement.

Warren Kerrigan at the Bijou.

And today is dramatic day at the home of "The Incomparable Movies" five rousing reels of brand new, thrilling drama being on today's big menu at the popular Bijou.

Popular Warren Kerrigan leads the list, appearing in his first great character role in "The Guardian of the Flock," a great drama of Mexican love in two reels. You all love to see handsome Warren Kerrigan "just as he is"—without make-up or special costume. But, don't fail to see him in this heart-touching play, for he's handsomer than ever in the picturesque Mexican costume. And the play is big enough to give him an opportunity for some of his very greatest acting. The result, as may be expected, is one of the most thrilling, smashing Kerrigan releases ever filmed.

Then there's another great two-reel feature—"The Oaklawn Handicap," a wonderful drama of the race-track, showing real horse racing, staged at a great race track, and including the running and the exciting finish of a real horse race that will thrill you with all the tensity of interest of the sport of kings. Don't miss this if you want to see the greatest bit of realism ever produced in a moving picture play.

Then there's lovely Pauline Bush, with Lon Chaney, in a touching single reel drama, "Maid of the Mist," a beautiful story with pretty Pauline at her very best.

"The Radium Thieves"—Grand.

A band of international crooks learn that Doctor Raynor, superintendent of the American Skin & Cancer Hospital, is going abroad an purchase half a million dollars' worth of radium, and they prepare to follow him with the intention of robbing him. After several unsuccessful attempts to gain possession of the radium, the crooks take desperate chances and one of them grabs the little case containing the precious mineral. Unprotected from its deadly rays, he has occasion to regret his actions. The doctor's terrible and wonderful experiences will be depicted on the screen at the Grand today. His escape and the recovery of the radium is brought about through the aid of a brave and clever girl. She receives her reward in the fulfillment of her love for the doctor's son, while the crooks are taken away to jail.

RECEIVERS APPOINTED.

For Poplar Lumber Corporation of Norfolk—Voluntary.

Norfolk, Va., April 19.—The Poplar Lumber Corporation, of Norfolk, filed a bankruptcy petition in the United States district court here today. Liabilities are put at $379,177.77, and assets at $601,572.87. Roger Otis Clapp and N. T. Green were appointed receivers.

A deficit of $6,000,000 in the telegraph and telephone service of Great Britain is shown in the annual report of the Postoffice Controller. The gross amount received by the government for telegrams and telephone service, was $52,000,000.

A WOMAN DOCTOR

says "Eugenics is a necessary factor in the future of the race. The average American girl is unfit for motherhood." This may be true, but if weak and ailing girls passing from girlhood to womanhood would only rely, as thousands do, upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—that simple remedy made from roots and herbs—to restore the system to a normal, healthy condition, it would cause many ills from which they suffer to disappear, so that motherhood might become the joy of their lives.

Grateful Mothers Tell Experiences

Mrs. T. Neureuer, Eau Claire, Wis., writes: "Foley's Honey and Tar Compound cured my boy of a very severe attack of croup after other remedies had failed. Our milkman cured his children of whooping cough. I recommend it to every one, as we know from our own experience that it is a wonderful remedy for coughs, colds, croup, and whooping cough."

Mrs. D. Gilkeson, Youngstown, O., writes: "My little girl had a severe cold and coughed almost continuously. I tried lots of cough remedies, but she didn't get any better. My sister recommended Foley's Honey and Tar Compound to me. The first dose I gave her relieved the inflammation in her throat, and after using one bottle the cough left her."

This sterling old remedy has been in use for years and is just as efficient for adults as for children. It gives relief for irritated and tickling throat, tight and sore chest, grippe and bronchial coughs.

STOCKS SUFFER FIRST REVERSAL SINCE MARCH

Wild Spasm to Unload in Last Hour Yesterday

Head of U. S. Steel Corporation Utters Cautious Words That Drive Prices Down—Day Most Active Since September.

New York, April 19.—The stock market suffered its first reversal today after an advance more or less steady which began in the last week of March. For the first four hours, the record was one of almost unimpaired gains, mainly in the investment division. That fact, coupled with persistent "peace" talk, made the rise more impressive and convincing.

In the last hour, however, a wild spasm to unload was witnessed throughout the entire list, the movement gaining force from the cautious utterances of the head of the United States Steel Corporation who stated domestic trade conditions were far from desirable.

Steel, which had been under pressure all day, although rising to the high quotation of 60 7-8, suddenly fell back four points and other leaders declined in greater or less proportion. Some gains were entirely wiped out, Steel losing two points net and others relinquishing the greater part of their rise.

In final dealings the reaction was slightly arrested, but the closing indicated a revival of offerings in which the bear party was a formidable factor. The day's business which amounted to approximately $1,500,000 shares, thereby making a record for activity since September, 1911, began with advances in all quarters of the list except the motor shares and some of the equipments and industrials which figured in last week's sensational rise. Almost the only specialties to show strength were the Petroleum and American Woolen.

Demand for stocks had its origin mainly in quarters heretofore active commission houses, reporting a fresh accumulation of orders over the week-end. A large percentage of that business came from the Middle West, although New England evinced a lively interest in coppers.

Bond sales also reached larger proportions, sales, par value, aggregating $6,500,000.

FULL ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT

PUBLISHER'S ANNOUNCEMENT.

THE MORNING STAR, the oldest daily newspaper in North Carolina, is published daily and mailed to subscribers outside the county at $6 per year, $3 for six months; $1.50 for three months; or served by carrier in the city and suburbs at 60c. per month, or, when paid in advance, $7.00 per year, $3.50 for six months, $1.75 for three months.

THE SUNDAY STAR by mail, one year, $1; six months, 50 cents; three months, 25 cents.

ADVERTISING RATES may be had on application, and advertisers may feel assured that through the columns of this paper they may reach all Wilmington, Eastern Carolina and contiguous territory in South Carolina.

Obituary sketches, cards of thanks, communications espousing the cause of a private enterprise or a political candidate and like matter will be charged at the rate of 10 cents per line, to persons carrying a regular account, or, if paid cash in advance, a half rate will be allowed. Announcements of fairs, festivals, balls, hops, picnics, excursions, society meetings, political meetings, etc., will be charged under the same conditions, except so much thereof as may be of news value to the readers of the paper, in the discretion of the editors.

TELEPHONES: Business Office, No. 61. Editorial and Local rooms, No. 61.

COMMUNICATIONS, unless they contain important news, or discuss briefly and properly subjects of real interest, are not wanted; and, if acceptable in every other way, they will invariably be rejected unless the real name of the author accompanies the same, not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith.

ALL DRAFTS, checks, express money orders and postal money orders for the paper should be made payable and all communications should be addressed to

Why can't we have a Billy Sunday magazine for Sunday reading?

How much advantage did we take of the "open door" in China when it was open?

If Progressive deserters were to be executed, who would be left to operate the guillotine?

It takes more than a year for the powerful nations of Europe to keep from getting licked.

Anyhow, the Japanese know where there is a good place to get coal in the waters of Lower California.

England has decided to put a ban on whiskey, but will stick to beer. That is giving up the substance for the shadow.

Dorothy Dix declares: "There's is no such thing as an old maid." Even if there were, an old maid is no "thing."

Violating neutrality is every belligerent's game. What makes the violation of neutrality a crime is for some other nation to be guilty of it.

A Wilmington lady claims that her husband is often in an agitated state. Of course, she does not mean that he is in South Carolina, for that has ceased to be an agitated state.

Says the Savannah News: "The Republican leaders, at least many of them, believe that Colonel Roosevelt is headed toward the Republican camp." However, they must have gumption enough to know that if the Colonel should land in the Republican camp again, he would not regard it as a come-back but a capture.

The large American ammunition manufacturing concern, which refused to accept Europe's orders for millions of dollars' worth of war material, ought to be awarded the Nobel Peace Prize. It is said that the one factory could supply any two of the belligerent powers with war material, but the head of the establishment did not want business from any of the European nations. There is a man whose conscience outweighs the gold of Europe.

In an address delivered in Washington a few days ago, Dr. R. S. Woodward, president of the Carnegie Institute, asserted that the earth weighs six hundred million, million, million tons. We cannot verify the statement of Dr. Woodward, nor can we prove it untrue, but we do know that in spite of its weight a comparatively few men on the earth are trying to get the whole thing in their hands, sea and all.

Senator Aldrich died last week. Various newspapers contain articles raking up all sorts of harsh things against him. The only thing they give him credit for is his consistency in being a reactionary and a standpatter. He got what he wanted out of the Republican party and was so loyal to it that he died without besmirching his standpat record by even tolerating Roosevelt's "new nationalism" and progressivism.

Now is the time when the ice man comes forward and tells the coal and wood man "good night." The ice manufacturers know that the season is here when the people need "cold comfort," and surely the people in a certain city have reason to be impressed with the enterprise of one of their ice factories which carries a half-page illustrated advertisement in the local daily paper. That ice company is not only out for business in its own city, but is reaching out after the out-of-town trade, as will be seen by this announcement in display type: "Sacked ice shipped promptly to any station. Carload lots in refrigerator cars. Manufacturers of pure distilled water ice." The ice dealers in the smaller towns and villages no doubt know through that live ice company's advertisement just where to mail, phone or telegraph an order for ice. Business is business.

A $4,500 ACRE.

The Atlanta Constitution states that an interesting instance is reported from Auburn, Ga., where an acre of Turner county land is expected to produce a crop of sweet potato slips worth $4,500. County Demonstrator R. L. Ballard is growing 3,000,000 slips on a specially prepared acre. It is proposed to sell them at $1.50 per thousand, so that if the plants turn out well and customers are found for them, the gross receipts from the acre will be $4,500.

Of course, that is counting chickens before they are hatched, but up to now the prospects are good for Demonstrator Ballard's crop. The Constitution says the net profit will be approximately 50 per cent, or a net outcome of more than $2,000 for the acre's production. Our esteemed contemporary remarks that "Georgia land yields profits to brains in far greater proportion than to manual labor, no matter how well applied." It also observes that the success which the farm demonstrator is to achieve is "because the investment and energy that were put into it were backed by brains." However, the Atlanta paper adds:

"True, this is an exceptional case, requiring considerable outlay of capital as well as constant attention; but it is a striking illustration of what can be done with Georgia land, and there are plenty of farmers in Georgia who have the brains to invest along with their capital and labor. There are many Georgia products which will yield handsome returns, where brains are put into the process, which do not require anything like the outlay of capital involved in cultivating sweet potato plants. There have been instances in which an acre of Georgia strawberries yielded as high as $2,000 gross; and there are plenty of truck crops which, properly cultivated and attended, will bring $500 or $600 and even as high as $1,000.

"The value of an 'idea' is often just as great in farming as it is in business. It is planning to do something better than the average, and doing it, that counts. If every Georgia farmer would pick out just one acre for the exploitation of an idea, and put into it the best that is in him, we would soon have many wonderful records of production that would interest and startle the world. Remarkable yields, such as the $4,500 acre instanced, are today the exception; brains put into the capital and energy now employed would come pretty near to making them the rule."

If all the foregoing is true as to Georgia land, it is true as to North Carolina land where the acreage value of productions recorded in the United States census as the greatest of all the American states with only one exception. Even if that Georgia acre fails to do all that is expected of it, the net result will prove to be profitable. How profitable it will be, remains to be seen when all the crop has been sold, the cash received, the cost of production is subtracted and the balance is known.

Demonstrator Ballard specialized on potato slips, but if he should prove that $2,000 can be made on an acre grown in potato slips, it possibly might be feared that all the farmers will go to producing slips and bring about over-production, just as they have done with cotton.

When Demonstrator Ballard is through with his demonstration, he can interest us all by giving a detailed account of the methods and an itemized statement of the expenses involved. In the first place, the value of the large number of potatoes planted for the production of slips must have been the largest expenditure made during the demonstration, but there are the other items of labor, fertilizer, interest on the investment in the land itself and the cost of harvesting and marketing, to be noted with a view to making known the net result of the experiment.

Anyhow, the farm demonstrators are proving what can be done on one acre of land, and no farmer need specialize to prove to his own satisfaction that soil preparation and intensive rather than extensive methods will produce better results on one acre than on twenty or more. Even if the yield of any crop is doubled, it is the equivalent of making more on one acre than on two acres. Therein lies the value of farm demonstration, even though each farmer may put his wits to work and specialize or experiment as he likes. The possibilities are great.

IDLENESS NOT ALWAYS VAGRANCY

In a campaign against vagrancy being conducted by the Kinston authorities, it is said that 30-day sentences are being meted out "promiscuously" in the municipal court in an effort to rid the city of undesirable negroes. Women as well as men are being sent to the county roads, where they are worked as cooks. Vigilance on the part of the officials of any municipality to clear the community of criminal vagrants is commendable, and so far as we are informed there is nothing in the diligent action of the Kinston authorities to warrant anything but commendation.

Nevertheless, we are not sure if during the period of depression caused by the European war vagrancy laws have not sometimes been overworked by zealous officials who have rounded up and sentenced "promiscuously" those who were involuntarily idle along with those who were idle from choice. It is not impossible, if improbable, that "idleness" has sometimes been confounded with "vagrancy," and those who were not legally vagrants but were merely involuntarily idle, both white and colored, were given terms on the roads. Have not defendants in our municipal courts, charged with vagrancy, frequently offered the defense that they were idle because they could not get work and the defense was not refuted by evidence to the contrary?

All idleness is not vagrancy. All who have been idle within the last six or eight months were not vagrants. Webster's definition of a vagrant is: "One who strolls from place to place; one who has no settled habitation; an idle wanderer; a sturdy beggar; an incorrigible rogue; a vagabond." A North Carolina statute, if we are not mistaken, goes further and defines a vagrant as one having no visible legitimate means of support, but that statute was enacted for the purpose of reaching those engaged in illegitimate practices for profit, by bringing these practices within the meaning of the law against vagrancy. It was never contemplated that it should be made to apply "promiscuously" to all who even temporarily should be found without visible means of support, either white or black.

This is not intended in any degree as a defense of the vagrant or as a criticism of those who are vigilant in the enforcement of the law as to vagrancy, but it is intended merely as a word of caution lest injustice should be done by ignoring the spirit of the law and enforcing the letter to the extent of placing the involuntarily idle in the same class with those who are really vagrants and thereby punishing those who have committed no crime, especially not from choice. Under a strict construction of the North Carolina statute a few millions of good people in Belgium might be classed as criminals and liable to road sentences.

THE SOUTHERN'S LOSS.

The signal honor paid to the memory of the late Col. A. B. Andrews, when the obsequies took place at Raleigh yesterday, indicated what a high place he held in the Southern Railway system, although he occupied the position of a vice president. For three minutes at the hour of the funeral all wheels on the thousands of miles of the Southern Railway system, including the more than 1,300 miles in North Carolina, were stopped. All trains halted and all machine shops became silent in token of the respect in which Colonel Andrews was held.

President Fairfax Harrison and other high officials of the Southern went from Washington to Raleigh by special train to be present at the obsequies. It was a sad day for the Southern and particularly for Raleigh, where Colonel Andrews made his home and for which city he had done so much. He was best known in his home city where his own invididual influences were more intimately felt and his eminent qualities and abilities were known.

Colonel Andrews was easily one of the best railroad men in this country. His ability was both executive and diplomatic. He was a man of broad intelligence, strong character and largeness of comprehension, and therefore he was a tower of strength to the Southern in North Carolina and to the system in general. He could have been president had he consented, but he preferred to remain in his own native State, and his home city of Raleigh, to which he was warmly attached and truly loyal. The Southern Railway has wrought wonderful development in North Carolina and it is due to Colonel Andrews that his State was doubtless more typical of the system than any other State. The road is doubletracked through almost the entire width of North Carolina, while the very few miles of main line track not doubled will soon be completed.

It was under Colonel Andrews that the Western North Carolina railroad was finally completed from Salisbury to Asheville. The tunnelling of the Blue Ridge in several places and the difficult mountain grades along that scenic line made the Western North Carolina railroad project a great engineering feat in the day that the work was in process of achievement. It is to this road that the piedmont and mountain sections owe their marvelous development.

It is not easy, therefore, to calculate the great work of Colonel Andrews to his own State, for that is only one instance. Probably the broadest benefaction which his State has received on account of his genius is the great general development along the lines of the Southern throughout the State. The Southern's great shops at Spencer are within themselves a monument to Colonel Andrews.

THE FOLLY OF YOUTH

Fresh proof of the fact that no amount of mere book knowledge nor of any other kind, for that matter, will save a young man from the folly characteristic of youth, is found in the declaration of William James Sidis, Harvard's mathematical prodigy, who, at the age of eleven, lectured on the dilated fourth dimension before gray-haired professors, that he will never marry. Willie now is only seventeen and has much to learn.

At the age of fourteen he had an episode with a woman, he says, that turned the tide of his life and it was then that he vowed celibacy with the result that since that time he has turned down six proposals of marriage from women. We admire his grit. In order that he might not forget his vow, he had a medal struck off. Medal or no medal, however, Willie is liable to fall head over heels in love in an unguarded moment. Until he does he will have something still to live for in spite of his educational attainments.

"A pretty woman means nothing to me," he declares. Bah! He is a youth. Nobody but a mere bashful boy would say that. He has a lot to say about eugenics, the superman, et cetera. He'll out-grow that. When Willie's soul mate pounces on him, he will realize how the mathematic rule can be so reversed that two make one.

When the railroads are engaged in bringing about development the country is developing. When the railroads prosper the country prospers. If the railroads will treat the country right, maybe the country will treat the railroads right. Anyhow, a conflict between the railroads and the country is as disastrous for the country as it certainly is for the railroads.

CURRENT COMMENT.

Of course, if there is to be but one parcel post station in the state the Gate City is the place for it—no argument about that. Considered as a blessing, however, it is of problematic value.—Greensboro News.

Think of it; there is not a real large town in the county, and yet at Red Springs is the Southern Presbyterian College, one of the largest and best in the South; at Maxton is the Carolina College for Women, which though just on its feet, is making strides and gaining fame; at Lumberton is one of the largest, handsomest and most modern court houses in the State, the streets are paved and the place is destined to be a big and beautiful city; Rowland is said to be the best electric lighted town in all this section. By far the greater part of all this progress and prosperity is due to the lead Robeson has taken for the cause of education.—Fayetteville Observer.

The steady increase in the price of cotton is a joy and a delight to all who have cotton to sell. But the bulk of the crop is not in the hands of the producers and the increased price is not helping them. They had best be careful lest by overplanting for the 1915 crop they do not plant for a low price market in the fall of this year. The farmer who first plants for food crops and then for a cotton crop is the man who is going to be safe. The realization that there is a big cotton crop this year is certain to put the prices of cotton on the toboggan.—Raneigh News and Observer.

They are now about ready to admit that the cotton acreage in Texas, where acreage counts, is not going to be reduced at all. On the contrary, it will be increased and the increase will amount to 2 per cent. Texas hasn't quit planting yet and before the season is over we may expect a revision upward of the increase. The rise in price, coming just when the farmers were figuring on the casting of the crop, had an influence that could not be resisted, but The Observer takes no stock in the claim made by some papers that this rise in the price was the work of speculators. It was simply the result of demand and the greater part of the demand is to be credited to war conditions. The South is heading for another big crop of cotton, and there is no use trying to hide that fact. The cotton fever is even returning to North Carolina and the reduction estimates that have heretofore held firm at one-quarter, are going to be shaded down a little.—Charlotte Observer.

FUNERAL OF DR. F. H. HOLMES IN CLINTON THIS AFTERNOON

Prominent Physician and Citizen Died in Asheville.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Clinton, N. C., April 19.—Dr. Frank H. Holmes, a prominent physician of Clinton, died last night in Asheville, where he had gone for special treatment.

He was a son of the late Dr. Allmand Holmes and had attained a State-wide reputation as a surgeon. He leaves a widow and an aged mother who has survived the last of her children. Dr. Holmes was 45 years of age and aside from his profession had been useful in the civic and religious life of his community. Long a vestryman of St. Paul's Episcopal church, he was also a director of the Bank of Clinton, and had served as a town alderman. He was much loved by all who knew him and his death is greatly deplored by the entire county.

The interment will be in Clinton cemetery tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Professor Tarrida del Marmol, a well known Spanish revolutionary, and the most noted of political exiles resident in England, is dead at his home in Highams Park. His expulsion from Spain came about through his allegations that prisoners were tortured in Montjuich prison, Barcelona.

WARNING

To the Public:—

I have been informed that certain parties, working for other candidates, who are opposed to me in my race for Councilman from the Sixth Ward, have circulated the report that I was put up and am controlled by certain interests in our city. I wish to brand these statements as malicious falsehoods and as obviously started for the purpose of defeating me, I have made no promises to any one, nor do I intend doing so. I am running my own campaign, and if elected, will serve the city to the best of my ability, granting no special privileges to any persons nor special interests. If the voters of my Ward think there is a candidate who will serve their interests better, I expect them to vote for him, but I do not propose for underhanded politicians to make untrue statements or use unfair means for the purpose of defeating me.

I believe my reputation among the people of Wilmington is satisfactory, and I defy any man to say that I ever gave any one other than a square deal, knowingly.

Respectfully yours,

J. Haughton James,

Candidate for Councilman Sixth Ward.

Fourth Ward—D. N. Chadwick, Jr., (incumbent), James M. Hall.

Fifth Ward—C. C. Loughlin, (incumbent), W. J. Bradshaw, Walter G. Hatch, J. B. Fales, W. R. Kingsbury.

Sixth Ward—W. D. McCaig, (incumbent), J. Haughton James, J. A. Everitt, Jr., W. A. Woods.

The voters in each ward vote for only one candidate for mayor, so that the results of the primary today will settle the mayoralty race, the candidate receiving the majority of the votes cast going into the May election without opposition.

For Councilmen, each voter votes for two candidates from the ward in which he lives, and the two candidates receiving the highest number of votes are voted upon by the city as a whole in the general election May 4.

This latter feature is a change made by the last Legislature, the Councilmen formerly having been nominated, like the Mayor, by a vote of the city as a whole.

Under the amendment to the charter, passed by the recent Legislature, the term of the mayor nominated today will be two years and the terms of the Councilmen from the First, Fourth and Sixth wards will be two years, while the Councilmen from the Second, Third and Fifth wards will be to serve for four years. At the expiration of the two year terms in the First, Fourth and Sixth, the terms of Councilmen from these wards will be for four years also.

The total registration for the primary is over 3,100 and predictions are that over 2,500 votes will be cast today. The registration in the Fifth ward alone is 899, and with only one voting precinct in the ward for this election, there were many predictions last night that many who desire to vote in this ward will not be able to do so. It was pointed out that with just 647 minutes of actual voting time, it will be a physical impossibility to vote 899 men, should all desire to vote. Even with four or five booths, it was argued, it requires the greater part of one minute for the registrar to check the voter and issue his ticket.

Formerly, before the ward lines were changed and a Sixth ward created, there were two voting precincts in the First and Fifth wards. Now there is only one precinct in each ward. The polling places are located as follows:

First Ward—Engine House, Fourth and Campbell streets.

Second Ward—Police Station, City Hall.

Third Ward—Giblem Lodge, corner of Eighth and Princess streets.

Fourth Ward—McClellan's Stables, No. 116 Dock street.

Fifth Ward—Engine House, Sixth and Castle streets.

Sixth Ward—Mann's Store, Seventeenth and Market streets.

The City Board of Elections will receive the returns from the primary at the court house tonight at 8 o'clock, or as soon thereafter as the results are known. In some of the wards, where there are four and five candidates for Council, it will probably require quite a time to count the votes.

Under the Australian ballot act for New Hanover county, as amended by the last Legislature, a mistake on the part of a voter in marking his ballot will not cause the entire ballot to be thrown out as heretofore, unless the mistake applies to candidates for each office on the ticket. For instance, if the elector marked his ballot incorrectly in voting for Councilmen, but marked the candidate for mayor correctly, then the vote for mayor would count, and if the vote for mayor was marked incorrectly and for Council correctly, only the vote for mayor would be thrown out.

Each and every candidate seems confident of the results today, and the friends of each man are predicting success. Discounting the personal interest, however, there is little foundation for any accurate prediction as to results in the different contests today and the returns tonight will be awaited with much interest.

Automobile Burned Sunday.

Near Greenfield Park Sunday afternoon about 5 o'clock the large Chalmers touring car of Mr. S. J. Springer caught ablaze from a back-fire and was practically destroyed. The wreck was towed in yesterday by Messrs. Schulken & Korb at the Lassiter-McDuffie garage, pending adjustment of insurance carried by Mr. Springer with Messrs. J. H. Boatwright & Son.

Married Sunday Afternoon.

Miss Gertrude Malpass and Mr. Walter R. Weeks were married Sunday afternoon at 12:30 o'clock at No. 609 South Front street. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Crowley, pastor of Immanuel Presbyterian church.

DR. FOSTER LEAVES IN JULY

Returned to Wilmington Yesterday. Has Accepted Presidency of Bessie Tift College in Georgia.

Rev. Dr. J. H. Foster, pastor of the First Baptist church, who was elected president of Bessie Tift College at Forsythe, Ga., by the board of trustees last week, returned to Wilmington Sunday. He will remain in Wilmington until the latter part of July, when he will go to Forsythe. Dr. Foster was principal of a school for several years soon after he left college and is, therefore, not new to educational work.

During the five years he has resided in Wilmington he has been wonderfully blessed in his work. The membership of his church has been more than doubled and much good has been accomplished along all lines. Dr. Foster has taken a prominent interest in public affairs, believing that a minister should at all times take an active part in the life of the community in which he lives. He has hundreds of friends outside of his own denomination who regret exceedingly that he is to leave the city.

Because of the fact that all his time during the summer will be taken up with his new duties, Dr. Foster will be unable to take a party of tourists to the Panama-Pacific Exposition at San Francisco as he had planned. The members of the party, who desire to do so, will be able to go with another party, arrangements to this end already having been made.

Bessie Tift is the female college which is owned by the Baptist State convention of Georgia. It is located in the hills of central Georgia, two hours ride from Atlanta, one hour from Macon, on the Central of Georgia railroad.

No college in the South can boast of more commodious dormitories. The main edifice has two large modern dormitories and occupies the center of a group of seven buildings. Three are brick buildings with broad hallways, spacious corridors, and large, well lighted and well ventilated living rooms. They are lighted with electricity, heated with steam and have hot and cold water baths on each floor.

A beautiful campus, with evergreens, shrubbery and flowers, adds to the beauty of the college home. The college maintains a well equipped library and laboratories for all the work of the physical and biological sciences. The conservatory of music is equipped with pipe organ, two grand and 54 upright pianos.

The power plant furnishes electricity for all the buildings, steam heat for warming the buildings and for cooking purposes. The water supply is secured from a deep water well.

There are a number of cottage homes where girls keep house on the co-operative plan under the supervision of the teacher of domestic science and are thus enabled to live at a minimum cost. The farm just to the rear of the college contains 53 acres. It is in charge of an experienced farmer. The vegetables from this farm are canned during the summer and used in the college. A herd of 15 Jerseys furnishes milk for the tables. There are three tennis courts, a basketball court and a swimming pool where the girls can fine recreation.

The work of the college is done by a faculty of 30 officers and instructors. These are all scholarly, consecrated, Christian men and women, who are specialists in their respective departments.

Dr. and Mrs. Foster with their family will live in the Addie Upshaw hall, where there are rooms for over 200 girls. They will eat in the dining room with the girls and Mrs. Foster will be the college mother for the girls in all the buildings. The buildings altogether have accommodation for between 600 and 700 girls.

The college offers a normal course for teachers which is approved by the Board of Education of Georgia. Students completing this course receive their license to teach in the public and high schools of the state without further examination. The next session opens September 15th.

On next Sunday Dr. Foster will resign the pastorate of the First Baptist church, his resignation to be effective August 1st. He and Mrs. Foster will attend the commencement exercises at Bessie Tift the latter part of May. Mrs. Foster will remain in Forsyth and later the children will go down to join her.

OPENING DAY AT VICTORIA WAS ALTOGETHER A SUCCESS

Former Vaudeville Theatre Now Devoted to Motion Pictures.

The Victoria Theatre, under the management of Mr. R. H. DeBruler, formerly manager of the Montgomery Theatre, Atlanta, Ga., was formally opened yesterday as a ten-cent motion picture theatre. Mrs. Leslie Carter, in "Du Barry," a Kleine production, was the attraction for the opening day, and was witnessed by almost capacity audiences at every show, afternoon and evening. The picture was a splendid presentation of the great French drama.

Jack Loomey and Joe Coombs, character singers and dancers, contributed some clever entertainment between reels and scored a distinct hit of their own.

Mr. DeBruler, who has leased both the Grand and the Victoria, received many commendations yesterday and last night on the success of his opening at the Victoria, and the high character of his programme.

SOCIAL MEETING TONIGHT

Boosters Will Entertain Visitors at Y. M. C. A.—Public Invited.

There will be a social meeting at the Young Men's Christian Association tonight, beginning at 8:30 o'clock, when the ministers will play a game of volley ball in the gymnasium. The affair has been arranged by the Boosters' club, which was recently organized to advance the interests of the association. The public is cordially invited to attend, especially the ladies. There will be a musical programme and refreshments will be served.

Another interesting feature of the evening in addition to the game of volley ball by the ministers will be exhibitions of fancy swimming in the pool in the basement. Visitors will be given an opportunity to inspect the building. A most enjoyable time is promised all who attend.

Complete returns from the city primary election will be received at the Y. M. C. A. tonight.

Crossed the Atlantic.

After having made a trip across the Atlantic to a European port, the steamer Henry Williams, of the Baltimore & Carolina Line, arrived in Wilmington yesterday with a general cargo from Baltimore. The Navahoe also arrived yesterday from New York, making the trip in the place of the Seminole, which was wrecked last week off the coast of Haiti.

KNIGHTS OF KHORASSAN HERE ON PILGRIMAGE

Team From Suez Temple, No. 73, Arrived Last Night.

Class of More Than 60 From Wilmington and Nearby Points Will Be Led Across Hot Sands Tonight—Banquet Follows.

The Dokies are in town.

A team some 35 strong from Suez Temple, No. 73, Dramatic Order Knights of Khorassan, arrived on their own special Pullman car, attached to the Seaboard train from Charlotte, last midnight, and tonight in the Odd Fellows' Hall at Third and Princess streets, beginning at 8 o'clock and lasting until the work is finished, they will lead a class of more than 60 candidates from Wilmington and other nearby points across the hot sands of the desert into full-fledged membership. The event—at least to those who are slated for slaughter—overshadows interest in the results of the municipal primary.

In addition to the visitors from Charlotte, the event will be attended by many members of the order from other towns and cities nearby and by practically all of the Wilmingtonians who are already members. The ceremonial will be held on the third floor of the Odd Fellows hall and will be followed by an elaborate banquet to be served on the second floor of the building.

Many of the leading business and professional men of the city are "fresh meat" this time, and several other points in this section, including Clinton, Atkinson, Southport and Hallsboro, will also be represented.

Suez Temple, with headquarters at Charlotte, has a membership of about 1,000 in this and other States, and is growing all the time. It was quite a good membership in Eastern North Carolina already.

The object of the Dramatic Order, Knights of Khorassan, is to promote better, broader and closer fellowship among Pythian Knights, and it teaches the doctrine of spreading the flowers of friendship along the pathway of life.

The members of the Charlotte team and visiting Knights from other points will be entertained by the local Knights today with automobile rides about the city and to the sound.

This is the first Pilgrimage of the Dokies to Wilmington in some time. There will be no public parade of the "fresh meat" this time, it is announced.

HANDLE OVER TEN THOUSAND PARCELS IN TWO WEEKS.

Wilmington Postoffice Kept Detailed Record of Business Done.

Over ten thousand parcel post packages were handled by the Wilmington postoffice from April 1st to April 15th, according to a detailed statement of this branch of the business of the office which Postmaster H. McL. Green has had prepared. The exact number of parcels was 10,790 and their total weight was 14,744 pounds. The postage received for this business amounted to $427.44. The total number of parcels mailed at the Wilmington office was 4,875.

The number of parcels received from other offices for delivery at the Wilmington office was 5,775 and there were 140 packages mailed for local delivery. Of those delivered in the city, 1,067 parcels were distributed through general delivery and boxes, 2,465 by carriers on regular trips, 443 by rural carriers and 86 by special delivery, making a total of 4,070 delivered without extra cost. There were 1,845 parcels delivered by automobile.

There were 472 parcels insured at the Wilmington office and 53 mailed for C. O. D. delivery.

BEFORE THE RECORDER.

Willie Wright, Colored, Given Three Months on County Roads.

Willie Wright, colored, was unable to prove to the satisfaction of the recorder yesterday that he did not steal a bicycle, owned by Mr. T. N. Simmons, a carpenter, and was given three months on the county roads. He declared that he had bought the wheel from another negro, but he was unable to locate him, if such was the case. There were several up for being drunk and disorderly and they were required to pay the costs.

A case against Liddell Simpson, colored, charged with stabbing another negro, although not hurting him seriously, was continued until today at the request of the State. Nathan Sumpter, Denim Williams, Arnold Spicer and Robert Murphy, colored boys, charged with storebreaking, will be tried this morning.

MORE LOGS ARE STOLEN.

Four Negroes Have Hearing on Larceny Charge—One Acquitted.

Stealing logs from Smith's creek near Wilmington seems to be a popular pastime on these bright clear days. Joe Williams, a negro, says that he had a consignment stolen last week. He swore out warrants for the arrest of four negroes and they had a hearing before Justice Harriss yesterday afternoon. R. Baker was acquitted, but Joe Murphy, Luther Pigford and George Pigford were sent over to Superior Court for trial on charges of larceny. Luther Pigford was able to give bond but the other two went to jail in default of bond.

MEETINGS AT CHAMBER

State Corporation Commission Accepts Invitation of Secretary.

In response to an invitation of the Wilmington Chamber of Commerce that the Corporation Commission to use the rooms of the Chamber for its meetings when it comes to Wilmington to investigate switching charges for freight, Mr. W. G. Womble, rate clerk for the Commission, writes Secretary Howard B. Branch that the Commission will be pleased to hold its meetings there. Mr. Womble says that the date of the hearing will not be determined until after May 5.

Sale of Lot Confirmed.

The final decree confirming the sale of the Hanby property, northwest corner Second and Chesnut streets, was filed with the Clerk of the Superior Court yesterday. The property was bid in some time ago by Herbert McClammy, Esq., and was assigned by him to the American National Bank. The amount paid was $20,000 and a deed has been given by Marsden Bellamy, Esq., commissioner. The lot which has a frontage of 67 feet on Chesnut street and 165 feet on Second, was sold under partition proceedings.

79TH COMPANY TO LEAVE FORT CASWELL TOMORROW

A. C. L. Has Contract to Carry Soldiers North—Southport News.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Southport, N. C., April 19.—On Wednesday of this week, the long expected departure of the Seventy-ninth company from Fort Caswell, takes place, the company going to Fort Michie, Conn.

The company will be taken on the U. S. steamer General eGtty, and the steamer Wilmington from the Fort to Wilmington, where the Atlantic Coast Line has the contract for carrrying the soldiers to the North.

The Southport Building and Loan Association has recently opened its eighth series for subscriptions, and has met with most gratifying results, about 150 shares being subscribed for. The association has and is doing good towards the family buildings of homes in this city, several houses now going up, with more applying for funds to erect buildings.

Saturday afternoon, the Civic and Mothers' clubs were addressed by Miss Grace Logan, teacher of domestic science in the Wilmington High school. Her subject was "Food Values." Miss Logan presented the balancing of meals in a most scientific and instructive manner, making her address full of interest to the members of the clubs.

PETITION OF STREET RAILWAY CO. IN RICHMOND IS DENIED.

No Restraining Order Against the Jitney Bus Companies.

Richmond, Va., April 19.—Judge Crump, in the law and equity court, today denied the petition of the Virginia Railway & Power Company for an injunction to restrain two jitney bus companies from using the streets of Richmond without a municipal franchise as prescribed for common carriers. The petitioners held that the jitney bus line was a "like enterprise" to the street car line and subject to the same laws.

The jitney operators maintained that their automobiles were subject to no other regulations than those applicable to any automobiles.

The street railway company is operating jitney buses pending a decision of the court of appeals to which, it is believed, it will carry this case.

Washington, April 19.—Ten dollars will be the minimum cost for submitting a dispute over cotton to the secretary of agriculture under the new futures law, according to a regulation announced today by the department. When the cost of determinating a dispute exceeds that amount the additional charge will be fixed by scale.

—Mr. John J. Blair, city superintendent of schools, leaves this morning for Chapel Hill, where he will attend the inauguration of Dr. Edward Kidder Graham as president of the University.

CARD OF THANKS.

We desire to express our sincere thanks to our friends who were so kind to us in the death of our son and brother, Jesse T. Mason. These expressions of kindness that come to us in this sad hour will never be forgotten.

SHERIFF MAKES SETTLEMENT

Detailed Report of Taxes Collected Submitted to Commissioners—Committees Are Rearranged.

Sheriff Cowan collected 1914 taxes to the amount of $220,918.47, this including $15,683.52 in special licenses, according to his final report submitted to the Board of County Commissioners, at a special meeting yesterday afternoon. The total amount of commissions on the collections is $6,772.90, which will go to the salary fund. The Board considered a number of routine matters at the meeting.

Sheriff Cowan was to have made his report at the first meeting of the Board this month, but asked for an entension in order to get the different accounts properly arranged. This was no easy matter, as can be readily seen when the amount of money is taken into consideration and the numerous channels through which it came. Messrs. Michael Cronly and B. F. King, Sr., office deputies, have worked faithfully and carefully, and have rendered the county most efficient service. Sheriff Cowan succeeded in getting more than 96 per cent of the taxes charged against him, and this in view of the business depression, is considered a splendid record.

The abstract of the report of Sheriff Cowan is as follows:

Debited—Listed as per abstract, $209,170.25; listed by auditor and sheriff, $1,857.91; delinquents sold, $1,578.48; delinquents collected, $1,429.97; back taxes, $2,394.34; schedule B taxes, $15,683.52. Total, $232,114.47.

Credited — Abatements, $1,871.87; property sold, $3,507.12; delinquents sold, $1,578.48; insolvents, $4,238.53; commissions, $6,772.90; balance, $214,145.57. Total, $232,114.47.

The report of the Sheriff was referred to Auditor Orrell and Commissioner Willard for verification. They will make their report at the next meeting.

After some discussion regarding the bond of Mr. C. R. Humphreys, who has the contract to build the hard road to Carolina boulevard, it was decided to require him to give bond in the sum of $17,000. He had previously submitted a bond for $8,500, believing that this was sufficient.

Inasmuch, however, as the contract made between him and the county specified that he was to give a bond of 50 per cent. of the approximate cost of the construction the board felt that the conditions of the contract should be carried out.

The Cape Fear Gravel Company, of Norfolk, Va., the concern that will furnish the gravel for constructing the road, requested that the county pay for the material purchased, this request being based upon the claim that they could secure a better freight rate if the material was consigned to the county instead of an individual. It was ordered by the Board that any amount due Mr. Humphreys on work done by him should be paid to the gravel company, provided the contractor requested it.

The matter of purchasing an automobile for Special Officer H. Mack Godwin was referred to the road committee. The purchase of a truck to be used in transporting convicts to their work in different parts of the county was referred to the same committee.

Chairman McGirt was instructed to prepare a memorandum defining the duties of Special Officer H. Mack Godwin, who was recently elected to this position, and present it to the Board at their next meeting.

Chairman McGirt announced that the rock quarry in East Wilmington has been abandoned, and the machinery stored away for use when the new quarry near Castle Haynes is opened. He also said that the convicts from the East Wilmington camp will be transferred to the new concrete stockade, recently erected near the county home, within the next two weeks. The convicts at the county home will also be moved to the new workhouse. He also reported that it had been possible to cut down the force of guards and other help effecting a saving to the county of $247 a month besides the cost of board.

Upon motion of Commissioner Yopp, Mr. R. A. Burnett, superintendent of roads, was instructed to have the Island Creek road repaired. At the suggestion of Commissioner Moore it was decided to have the work done by paid labor, because of the distance of the road from the present convict camps.

Mr. A. H. High was appointed as assessor for Harnett township to take the place of Mr. W. Van Hardin, who declined to serve, and Mr. William Hollis was appointed for Masonboro township in place of Mr. C. W. Bishop, who also declined to serve.

Chairman McGirt, in announcing the appointment of committees, said that the only changes made was in exchanging of places by himself and former Chairman Willard. The committees are as follows, the chairman being first named:

Jail—Willard, Yopp and Moore.
Court House—Willard and Yopp.
County Home—Kerr, McGirt and Willard.
Permanent Road Committee—McGirt and Willard.
County Roads—Yopp, Moore and Kerr.
Bridges—Moore, Kerr and McGirt.
Oak Grove—Yopp, Moore and Willard.

At the request of Road Superintendent Burnett, it was ordered that a telephone be installed at the Federal Point convict camp. The camp at Greenfield has been removed to the former camp, and there are now between 30 and 40 convicts there.

It was ordered that the county no longer pay half of Constable Davis' telephone rent, this action being taken at his request.

LOCAL DOTS.

—The monthly meeting of the Yoke Fellows' Band was held at the Y. M. C. A. last night, when appointments were discussed and plans outlined for the ensuing month.

—Rev. Andrew J. Howell left last evening for Jacksonville, N. C., where he will conduct a series of services this week, lasting through Sunday. He was accompanied by his little daughter, Laura.

Death of Mr. A. Autry.

Mr. Amariah Autry died suddenly yesterday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock at the home of his son, No. 508 Wooster street. He was 62 years old and had been living in Wilmington for several years. He had been in failing health for some time. The direct cause of his death was pellagra of the stomach. His wife has been sick for several weeks and is being treated at the James Walter Memorial hospital. The funeral arrangements had not been compelted last night, but the remains will probably be taken this afternoon to Brunswick county, where the deceased formerly lived.

GOOD PROGRESS MADE IN RAISING SUBMARINE F-4.

Raised 12 Feet and Towed in Shore Considerable Distance.

Honolulu, T. H., April 19.—The United States submarine F-4, submerged outside the harbor since March, was raised 12 feet early today and towed in shore until it rested on the upward inclining bottom. The salving crew, postponed further work until the lifting tackle was strengthened.

The satisfactory work done thus far in towing the submarine it is believed, will make unnecessary to pontoon methods of raising the craft.

Diver Loughman, who became entangled in the lifting cables Saturday, is recovering slowly.

RENEWED ACTIVITY IN COTTON

Prices in New York Make Another Set of New Seasonal High Records —Features.

New York, April 19.—Cotton showed renewed activity and strength today with prices making another set of new seasonal high records, and closed at an advance of 9 to 13 points.

Relatively easy Liverpool cables and reports of good weather South with beneficial rains Southwest, seemed to promote some scattered selling and realizing on the opening decline while there was also some selling here by houses with Liverpool connections. Offerings were readily taken, however, and the market soon firmed up. Reports of continued activity in mill circls and of a good spot demand helped the advance. There was enough realizing to cause some irregularity but the general price tonight was upward until active months showed net gains of 9 to 16 points with May selling at 10.29 and December at 11.05. Trading then became somewhat less active, but closing prices showed reactions of only a few points from the best.

A local statistical bureau issued a report indicating a decrease of 18.6 per cent. in acreage comparing with an indicated decrease of 20.9 per cent. about a month ago, but the tendency to scale down estimates of the probable acreage reduction apepared to be offset by increasing estimates of requirements and that there will be a substantial reduction in areas planted in Egypt.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON

Buying Wave Carries Prices to New High Levels For Season.

New Orleans, April 19.—After a short period of lower prices today, cotton rose to new high levels for the season on a buying wave which followed the appearance of a private estimate of 117,000 bales as the consumption by the world season. While these figures were criticised by the bears and were taken none too seriously by bulls, they served to call attention to the almost general improvement in business, the large orders under which mills are working and the unprecedented use of cotton in the manufacture of explosives.

Poor cables and rain in the western belt over Sunday caused a depression of 6 to 7 points around the first call. This decline was quickly recovered and the market gradually worked up to a net advance of 12 to 16 points carrying the July option to 10.24. The close was at a net rise of 9 to 12 points.

The market was helped by reports of firm spot prices in the interior, a good demand from Southern mills and only limited offerings.

WHEAT CLOSES HIGHER

Despite a Setback Caused by a Report of Failure of Austro-Italian Negotiations.

Chicago, April 19. — Despite a late setback, caused by reports that negotiations between Italy and Austria had been broken off, wheat today finished 1⅝@4c. above Saturday. Fulfillment of predictions of a bit decrease in the domestic visible supply had much to do with the strong upward movement, the greater part of the session.

RECORD BREAKING SESSION

Investment Stocks Rise 3 to 5 Points in First Hour, But Later Decline—Features.

New York, April 19.—Investment stocks rose 3 to 5 points in the first hour of today's record-breaking session but lost considerable of their gains in the final hour when United States Steel fell back four points on an admonitory trade statement, issued by its chief executive.

Steel had led the early advance. On its decline it carried other seasoned shares down 2 to 4 points, obliterating some gains entirely and reducing others to nominal proportions. Steel closed at 57 3-4, a maximum decline of 4 points and net loss of 2. The general list made some recovery from low levels touched in the final hour, but the market's tone at the end was irregular and confusing.

Erstwhile war specialties, with a few exceptions, were relegated to positions of secondary importance throughout the session.

Among better known shares the coppers held rather more consistently than any others, their strength being accompanied by another rise in the refined metal. Rock Island was almost the only railway stock to hold back throughout, losing 3 1-4 points. Total sales of stocks amounted to more than 1,500,000 shares, exceeding all records since 1911.

Trading in bonds exceeded all recent days with an upward trend. Total sales, par value, aggregated $6,536,000. United States bonds unchanged on call.

State Officers Assist in Perfecting Organization of Post D.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Wilson, N. C., April 19.—Commercial travelers living in Wilson have organized a post of the Travelers' Protective Association and regular monthly meetings will be held. In the organization the local men were assisted by A. L. Byrd, of Charlotte, State president; J. J. Norman, Winston-Salem, chairman membership committee; D. C. Crutchfield, State secretary; and W. M. Burgess, High Point, president of Post D.

The organization is to be known as Post T and starts off with fifty charter members. The officers are: President, A. C. Barden; vice presidents, L. B. Walker, R. C. Jones, Kirby Woodard; secretary and treasurer, P. B. Zeigler; chaplain, Rev. Richard Bagby; directors, W. D. Adams, W. F. Eagles, W. L. Brown, W. N. Hackney, S. B. Rierson, W. H. Sharp.

Kinston, N. C., April 19.—In the campaign against vagrancy being conducted by the local authorities 30-day sentences are being meted out promiscuously in the Municipal Court in an effort to rid the city of undesirable negroes. Women as well as men are being sent to the county roads. The former are worked there as cooks.

SEVERE PUNISHMENT

Of Mrs. Chappell, of Five Years' Standing, Relieved by Cardui.

Mt. Airy, N. C.—Mrs. Sarah M. Chappell of this town, says: "I suffered for five years with womanly troubles, also stomach troubles, and my punishment was more than any one could tell.

I tried most every kind of medicine, but none did me any good.

I read one day about Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I decided to try it. I had not taken but about six bottles until I was almost cured. It did me more good than all the other medicines I had tried, put together.

My friends began asking me why I looked so well, and I told them about Cardui. Several are now taking it."

Do you, lady reader, suffer from any of the ailments due to womanly trouble, such as headache, backache, sideache, sleeplessness, and that everlastingly tired feeling?

If so, let us urge you to give Cardui a trial. We feel confident it will help you, just as it has a million other women in the past half century.

Begin taking Cardui to-day. You won't regret it. All druggists.

NOTICE OF FORECLOSURE SALE.

By virtue of the power vested in me under a judgment rendered at the April term, 1915, of the Superior Court of New Hanover County, in an action entitled "Geo. A. Grimsley, Trustee, vs. R. A. Wright, et als," I will offer for sale to the highest bidder, for cash, at the Court House door, in Wilmington, N. C., on Wednesday, May 19th, at 12 o'clock M., the following lots of land, located in the City of Wilmington, to wit:

First Lot—Beginning in the western line of Nutt street at a point 119.7 feet Northwardly from the Northern line of Grace street and running thence Northwardly along the Western line of Nutt street 55.75 feet; thence Westwardly and parallel with Grace street 122 feet; thence Southwardly and parallel with Nutt street 55.75 feet; thence Eastwardly and parallel with Grace street 122 feet to the Western line of Nutt street, the point of beginning, same being parts of lots two and three in block 203, according to the official plan of the City of Wilmington, subject, however, to a lease from Worth & Worth, a copartnership, and former owners of said lot, to the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company, said lease expiring in the year 1934, and being for an easement or siding at the rear of said lot."

Second Lot—Beginning in the Western line of Nutt street, one hundred and ninety-eight feet northwardly from the northern line of Grace street, and running thence Southwardly along the Western line of Nutt street 22.55 feet to the line of another lot owned by R. A. Wright; thence westwardly and parallel with Grace street one hundred and twenty-two feet; thence Northwardly and parallel with Nutt street, 22.55 feet; thence Eastwardly and parallel with Grace street one hundred and twenty-two (122) feet to the Western line of Nutt street, the beginning point, the same being part of lot No. 3, in block No. 202, according to the official plan of the said City of Wilmington, subject, however, to a lease from Worth & Worth, a copartnership and former owners of said lot to the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company, said lease expiring in the year 1934, and being for an easement or siding on the rear end of the said lot.

The two lots will be offered separately and then jointly, and the terms of sale are cash, subject to the approval of the Court.

This 19th day of April, A. D. 1915.

KINSTON BEGINS THIRD WEEK OF EVANGELISTIC CAMPAIGN

Never Before Did So Many Kinstonians Go to Church in One Day.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Kinston, N. C., April 19.—Today began the third week of the evangelistic campaign being conducted by the Methodist, Baptist, Episcopal, Presbyterian and Christian churches and missions here. The meetings reached the high tide in attendance yesterday and last night. Never before in a single day did so many people publicly worship here. Percy Cross, the Texas evangelist of the Disciples; Dr. Wharton, the Confederate soldier priechear of the Baltimore Baptists; Dr. Hall, the Philadelphia Episcopal mission worker, and Rev. Raymond Browning, the Methodist Tar Heel, all spoke to their largest congregations here during the day. There were numerous professions. Local pastors did the preaching in a number of the churches and were greeted with record-breaking congregations. The spirit of the local evangelical campaign has spread to other towns in this section. Newbern and Grifton are preparing to follow suit.

COL. TOM DAVIS DEAD.

One of Bladen County's Oldest and Most Highly Esteemed Citizens.

Elizabethtown, N. C., April 19.—Col. Tom Davis, one of the oldest and most highly respected citizens of Bladen county, passed away at his home near White Oak Wednesday, after suffering three weeks of severe pain resulting from a fall in his room, caused by a slight stroke of paralysis.

Col. Davis was in his 86th year.

Of a genial, cheerful disposition, loving the companionship of friends, and dispensing hospitality to all who came within the doors of his home, he was a typical gentleman of the old school.

He was a member of Beth Carr Presbyterian church, and is survived by his wife and two children, Mr. W. J. Davis, clerk of court, and Mrs. N. A. Regan, both of Elizabethtown, also a sister, Mrs. Jane Delvin, who is 88 years old.

Col. Davis was a gallant soldier in the Civil War, also a member of the Legislature before the war.

He was buried in the family burying ground in the presence of a large number of friends and loved ones, the funeral exercises being conducted by his pastor, Rev. W. W. Davidson.

Face Eruptions Have Deep Significance

Often They Indicate Impurities Deep in the Tissues.

The results shown by S. S. S. in clearing the skin reveal how searchingly and how deeply this famous blood purifier attacks blood troubles. Facial eruptions are more often significant of impaired nutrition resulting from faulty elimination of body wastes.

Most people realize this to be true. And yet it is a difficult matter to convince such people they should avoid those harmful drugs such as mercury, iodide of potash, arsenic and so on. S. S. S. gives just as good effect without the destructive results, because it is more searching. It goes deeply into the circulation wherever the blood flows, but it does not remain to clog the system. And its effect is complete and thorough as indicated by blood tests. One of the strange things today is that so many people are wedded to the notion that mercury is the one antidote. It is not so. There is in S. S. S. a product of nature that is rated one of the most potent principles known for the complete elimination of blood troubles.

Wherever you go there are people who know this to be true from their own experience, for it has been clearly shown there is one ingredient in S. S. S. as essential to health if the blood be impure as the nourishing elements of the grains, sugars and salts of our daily food. Get a bottle of S. S. S. today of any druggist, but insist upon S. S. S., accept no substitute. And if your case is peculiar or of long standing, write to the Medical Adviser, The Swift Specific Co., 101 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga.

THRONGS ATTEND ANDREWS FUNERAL

High Officials of Southern Serve as Pall Bearers.

SERVICE VERY SIMPLE

Conducted from Episcopal Church —Floral Tributes, Rarely Equalled in State, Received From Many Quarters.

Raleigh, N. C., April 19.—With one of the largest gatherings of railroad officials and representative business men of the South ever gathered in the city, the funeral services of Col. Alexander Boyd Andrews, first vice president of Southern Railway, was conducted with the impressive ceremonies of the Episcopal church today at 4:30.

The pallbearers were four high officials of the Southern Railway and four prominent citizens of Raleigh. They were President Fairfax Harrison, of the Southern Railway; Vice President J. M. Culp, General Counsel Alfred P. Thom, Assistant General Counsel Hamilton McWhorter, Joseph G. Brown, Dr. D. E. Everett, Ed. Chambers Smith and John C. Drewry, of Raleigh.

BUSINESS HOUSES CLOSED

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., April 19.—There gathered at the Church of the Good Shepherd at 4:30 o'clock a great throng of people for the funeral of Col. A. B. Andrews, first vice president of the Southern Railway, and one of the most useful citizens North Carolina has ever produced. Many business houses were closed out of respect for the deceased and just at the funeral hour trains all over the Southern system stopped for a brief period.

Rt. Rev. Joseph Blount, Cheshire, bishop of the Diocese of North Carolina, and Dr. McPittinger, The Episcopal, conducted the service, the Episcopal funeral service in its simplest form was rendered with old hymns that were special favorites of Colonel Andrews, sung by the vested choir. These hymns were "Hark, Hark My Soul," "Forever With the Lord," "The Strife Is O'er," "The Battle Done."

In one of the transepts of the church were officials of the Southern Railway company and in the other were the vestry of the Church of the Good Shepherd, of which Colonel Andrews was for many years a member, and the bank directors and other business men with whom his associations were especially intimate.

The floral tributes were especially lovely and very numerous. There were large numbers of especially handsome designs sent by organizations with which Colonel Andrews' relations were especially close. There was a magnificent pall of roses and smilax covering the casket that was the tribute by the executive officers of the Southern. Then there was a cross of roses that was sent by the directors of the Citizens' National bank. The law division of the Southern for the State of Georgia sent another splendid floral design and there were numbers of others of the kind sent by other organizations, these and the tributes by hundreds of close personal friends constituting floral tributes rarely equalled at a funeral in this State.

Many hundreds of people went from the church to Oakwood cemetery for the final burial ceremonies, as did the vested choir of the church.

The service there was equally impressive, as demonstrating the respect, honor and affection in which Colonel Andrews was held by the people of Raleigh, of North Carolina and of the entire South.

WHO WILL SUCCEED HIM?

Henry Miller the Favorite Among Officials and Raleigh Citizens.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., April 19.—Much the most talked of man by visiting railroad officials and citizens generally here tonight for the first vice presidency of the Southern, succeeding the lamented Col. A. B. Andrews, is Henry W. Miller, now holding the position of assistant to the president of the Southern, with headquarters in Atlanta. President Fairfax Harrison, too, had this preference for Mr. Miller very much impressed on him this afternoon and tonight while here waiting to get away for Washington after the funeral of Colonel Andrews.

It is argued that Mr. Miller literally grew up in Colonel Andrews' office, serving as his private secretary and then as his active assistant, until, in recognition of his splendid efficiency as a railroad man, he was advanced to the place of assistant to the president with headquarters in Atlanta. Ever since then he has kept in close touch with the affairs in Colonel Andrews' division of the work of the system and is pronounced the really logical successor to Colonel Andrews, if President Harrison will relinquish his claim on his services as his assistant.

Clement Manly, of Winston-Salem, chief counsel for the Southern in this division, and General Counsel Alfred P. Thom, are also mentioned, either being recognized as eminently fitted to take up the work that Colonel Andrews had in hand as first vice president.

RALEIGH ADMINISTRATION WINS SWEEPING VICTORY

Mayor Johnson and Two Commissioners Practically Elected.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., April 19.—The Raleigh municipal primaries today were a sweeping victory for the present administration. James I. Johnson, the druggist, as mayor and commissioner of finance, received 1,338 votes and his opponents, C. H. Anderson, 677, and W. A. Cooper, 481. This gives Johnson a majority over the vote for both his opponents, being equivalent to election.

Commissioner of Public Works R. B. Seawell received 1,643 and his only opponent, George Syme, 859. This is also equivalent to election. Commissioner of Public Safety O. G. King, received 1,171 votes and his closest opponent, J. H. Gosney, 516, the vote for this commissionership being such that King will have to get 83 more votes in the final election and Gosney will have to get 730 more to defeat King. The latter's election is considered certain. Election is May 3. W. C. Harriss for judge of the municipal court had no opposition and polled 2,365 votes.

JOINT THROUGH RATES ARE HELD REASONABLE

Interstate Commerce Commission Hands Down Decision.

On Petition by North Carolina Corporation Commission on Rates from Cincinnati and Beyond—Commission Explains.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Washington, D. C., April 19.—Joint through rates from Cincinnati and points related thereto and from the Pittsburg-Buffalo territory to North Carolina on the first six classes of freight as now applied by the Southern Railway and its connections are not unreasonable nor unjust, according to a lengthy decision handed down by the Interstate Commerce Commission today in the complaint of the North Carolina Corporation Commission and the O'Dell Hardware Company and other Greensboro merchants as intervenors.

The O'Dell Hardware Co., and other merchants intervened with a complaint against the rates from eastern seaboard territory to North Carolina points. The Commission reserves its opinion in this case for future consideration.

Commissioner Clark, who wrote the opinion, refers at length to the reductions which the Commission allowed as a result of the Virginia cities' controversy which was decided in favor of North Carolina last year and concludes that North Carolina at that time received a reduction of rates on the six classes of freight approximating 20 per cent.

"These reduced rates," the opinion says, "were published as proportional rates to North Carolina destinations on business originating beyond the Virginia cities. Joint through rates from St. Louis and Cincinnati to North Carolina destinations were to be made by adding the rates from those points of origin to the Virginia cities the proposed proportional."

"There is left for consideration, therefore, only the issues presented by Sub. No. 1, the O'Dell Hardware Co., and the intervening petitions therein, petitioners in all of which will hereafter be referred to as complainants."

STATE COMMISSION EXPLAINS.

Old Cases That Were Involved in 1913 Adjustment.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., April 19.—The statement was made at the Corporation Commission today that the cases of the commission before the Interstate Commerce Commission, announced to be just dismissed without any reason being given therefor, are a number of suits that were filed by the commission before the meeting of the 1913 Legislature for remedying numbers of the freight rate discriminations against North Carolina shippers that were later involved in the compromise of rates that was effected.

This compromise removed the necessity for further prosecuting the cases before the Interstate Commerce Commission and their dismissal was really at the request of the North Carolina Commission.

Germans Destroy One More Vessel for the British.

London, April 20.—The admiralty has issued the following statement: "Yesterday a German submarine torpedoed and sank the trawler Vanilla. The trawler Fermo endeavored to rescue the crew but was fired at and driven off.

"All the crew of the Vanilla were lost. This killing of fisherfolk for no military purpose should not escape attention. It is the second murder of this character committed within a week. A careful record is kept of these events."

ASSISTING IN OFFICE.

Members of Y. M. C. A. Volunteer for Night Duty.

In order to help out during the busy season at the Y. M. C. A., when, with a reduced office force Secretary Huntington more than has his hands full, members of Association have arranged for a member to volunteer for office service one night each week.

Mr. L. F. Duvall started the movement and will be in charge of the office each Sunday night. Mr. Paul Gray will have charge Monday nights; Mr. G. C. Vincent, Tuesday nights; Mr. P. G. Laughridge, Wednesday nights; Mr. R. H. Griffin, Thursday nights; Mr. J. B. Wooster, Friday nights and Mr. R. F. Coleman, Saturday nights.

Why Spring Brings Out Freckles and Eruptions

The sudden appearance of freckles, slight eruptions or fine lines at this season is attributed by scientists to the "actinic ray," which is usually active during the spring months. Where the skin is so affected by this influence, if one will procure an ounce of common mercolized wax at any drug store, apply a little of it before retiring, like cold cream, she can easily overcome the trouble. When the wax is washed off next morning, flaky skin particles come with it. The entire outer cuticle is removed in this way in a week or so, with all its defects. No bleach could so effectually remove freckles or blemishes. The new surface is smooth, clear, fresh looking. No pain or inconvenience accompanies this simple treatment.

In case of wrinkles which sink beneath the outer skin, a solution of saxolite, 1 oz., dissolved in ½ pint witch hazel, makes a face bath which is wonderfully effective.

PLANS FOR REVIEW OF ATLANTIC FLEET O. K'D

President to See Naval Craft in New York Harbor.

Review by Wilson May 17th to be Followed by Water Carnival and Land Parade Probably the Next Day.

Washington, April 19.—President Wilson will review the Atlantic fleet in New York harbor May 17th, Secretary Daniels announced tonight after conferences with Admiral Fletcher, commander-in-chief of the fleet. The review will be followed by a water carnival at night and a land parade probably the next day.

The exact number of war craft to be assembled at New York has not yet been decided but practically all of the battleships, many of the cruiser, gun boats and destroyers attached to the fleet and some of the submarines and auxiliaries will be ordered out.

It is now planned to have the fleet complete target practice at Tangier Sound by May 5 or 6, and leave about the 8th for New York. The bluejackets and marines will be given a week's shore leave there from May 6th to 16th.

The fleet will pass out of New York harbor not later than May 20th for Narragansett bay for ten days maneuvers with Newport as a base.

Between June 1 and 21, the vessels will go to their home yards for docking, supplies and steaming trials. The next rendezvous will be in Hampton Roads soon after June 21st, and not later than June 25th the fleet will steam for San Francisco by way of the Panama Canal. Maneuvering en route, the ships, it is planned, will pass through the canal July 4th.

Secretary Daniels laid the plans for the review before President Wilson tonight and the President consented to remain in New York for two days, May 17 and 18.

Mr. Daniels also discussed with the President the formal opening of the Panama Canal in July. The President said it would be impossible for him to be present at the ceremony.

Present Status of Campaign.

Replying to questions as to the present status of the campaign, the generalissimo said:

"Conditions in the Caucasus are more satisfactory. Regarding the situation in the Dardanelles I will say we are fully confident that it has been demonstrated that fighting down the forts there will be a huge task for the Allies. But even should that happen, we would still be masters of the situation there by means of Howitzers, mines and a fleet. The Allies coming up the strait would be obliged to move in single file and the effectiveness of our protective measures should be apparent."

Various Forms Of Headache

"It is necessary in order to treat headaches properly to understand the causes which produce the affection" says Dr. J. W. Ray of Blockton, Ala. Continuing, he says: "Physicians cannot even begin the treatment of a disease without knowing what causes give rise to it, and we must remember that headache is to be treated according to the same rule. We must not only be particular to give a remedy intended to counteract the cause which produces the headaches, but we must also give a remedy to relieve the pain until the cause of trouble has been removed. To answer this purpose Anti-kamnia Tablets will be found a most convenient and satisfactory remedy. One tablet every one to three hours gives comfort and rest in the most severe cases of headache, neuralgia and particularly the headaches of women."

When we have a patient subject to regular attacks of sick headache, we should caution him to keep his bowels regular, for which nothing is better than "Actoids," and when he feels the least sign of an oncoming attack, he should take two A-K Tablets. Such patients should always be instructed to carry a few Anti-kamnia Tablets, so as to have them ready for instant use. These tablets are prompt in action, and can be depended on to produce relief in a very few minutes. Ask for A-K Tablets.

tion does—when she loses her recollection of her main object, as sometimes nations do and sometimes, perhaps, she herself has done, in pursuing some immediate and transitory object.

"I cannot speak, ladies, as you know, in more than general terms. Indeed it is indiscreet for me to speak at all. But I can ask you to rally to the cause which is dearer in my estimation than any other cause, and that is the cause of righteousness as ministered to by those who hold their minds quiet and judge according to principle. We must preserve the judicial temperament, not because we would sit in judgment upon others, but because we should ultimately wish to be judged by our own consciences and by the standards of our own national life. Do you wonder that, hoping for such things and expecting such things from bodies of people like this, I should be glad to come and greet you? That I should esteem it an honor to say that I hope I shall have some part in the great things that you are trying to do, and to create in the field of the national spirit?"

A WILMINGTON REPORT

Fully Corroborated and Easily Investigated.

Do you need a good kidney medicine? Then read the reports in these very columns of Wilmington persons cured or benefited with Doan's Kidney Pills. You won't have to go far to find out if they are true. This Wilmington case is an example. Others will follow.

L. H. Partin, 505 Chestnut St., Wilmington, says: "My back was weak and lame and I had acute pains across my loins. The secretions from my kidneys were highly colored and filled with sediment, and caused me much distress when being voided. I got a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at Bellamy's Drug Store and they drove away all the symptoms of my complaint." (Statement given Feb. 25, 1908).

OVER TWO YEARS LATER Mr. Partin said: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills occasionally since giving my former endorsement and always with the best of results."
